JAIL CAMP STORY, PAGE 14

The last of a two-part article by Times staff reporter Norman Cribbens on British Columbia forest jail camps appears today on page 14. The camps—unique in Canada—are one step in a wider program of penal reform. In today's story Cribbens tells of the prisoners' reaction to life in the camps.

NO CLOSING CHARGES

Defiance May Alter Shop Laws

No prosecutions have been laid against Victoria storekeepers and druggists as a result of the police crack-down on retailers violating the Wednesday store-closing regulations, police chief John Blackstock said today.

But many retailers are taking steps to have the regulations changed, and Mayor Percy Scourrah said the present impasse could result in a year-round six-day shopping week.

A spokesman for the city solicitor's department said there is nothing in the new Municipal Act to prevent the city council from passing such a bylaw.

The matter will be raised at the next meeting of the city council on Monday at 2 p.m.

The council is known to be sharply divided on Wednesday closing and it is considered unlikely any drastic change will be effected at this meeting.

Under the present bylaw, passed last May, city retailers may stay open six days a week from June 1 to Sept. 15, but must close at 1 p.m. Wednesday at all other times of the year.

SUDDEN DEATH

Victoria citizens were shocked today by the sudden death of Hugh E. Botterell, 42, prominent city lawyer and member of the Liberal Association, at his home at 533 Transit Road. (See story page 17.)

NOTE TO EMBASSY

Atom Bomb 'Revenge' Threatened

LONDON (AP)—The Soviet Embassy said today it has received a letter from a man claiming to be an American pilot and threatening to drop an atomic bomb on the Soviet Union.

The letter also contained a threat to drop a hydrogen bomb on Poland, the embassy said.

Earlier this year the Soviet Embassy said it received a letter from an American pilot threatening to drop a bomb in the North Sea off the English coast. Nothing happened.

Today's letter, according to the Soviet Embassy, read:

"I am an American pilot who lost a friend flying over Eastern Germany.

"I intend to get my revenge by dropping an atomic bomb on Soviet territory. One or two of my crew will be British airmen.

"We shall take off from Millenhall, Suffolk.

"Look out next Friday.

"T.W.J.

"P.S. My friend with his crew will drop an H-bomb on Poland."

'HOSPITAL COURT' BRIEFING

Boy Murder Suspect Sent to Adult Court

By DAVID COWLISHAW

A 16-year-old boy charged with murder following the slaying of two men in Colwood Saturday was transferred from juvenile to open police court today.

Matthew John Till will appear in RCMP court at Colwood 10 a.m. Wednesday, when a date will be fixed for preliminary hearing of a charge that he murdered Charles Mudge.

Mr. Mudge, 38, and his 70-year-old father, in-law, John Brand, were found shot to death at the Mudge home at 3460 Metchosin.

Mr. Mudge's wife Phyllis received a beating at the time of the shooting. The order transferring Till to open adult court was made by Magistrate A. I. Thomas at the boy's bed in Veterans' Hospital, where the youth is recovering from injuries received at the time of his capture Sunday.

'No Visitors' In Chilly Room

Hospital patients passing the door on foot or in wheelchairs paused to look into the room. A green card, No Visitors, was fixed to the corridor wall outside the room.

Once when Mrs. Hunt left the room to get coffee for Mrs. Till, reporters stopped her in the corridor and asked her about the mother's reaction to the murder charge against her son.

"Her reaction is what you would expect," the aunt replied. "You can guess what her reaction is."

Later Mrs. Till declined to be photographed. Stroking her son's hand and clutching a handkerchief, she shook her head at the photographers outside the open door, while Till turned his head away.

Psychiatrist Alcorn told reporters the boy was "fully recovered" from what he termed "a mental shock," although his physical condition was still not excellent.

He said the boy had "multiple bruises, cuts and swellings," injuries sustained when he crashed into a pole while driving the Mudgetts' truck after a police chase Sunday.

Meanwhile, private funeral services for the two victims were held at 11 a.m. today at McCall Bros. funeral home. The Rev. Canon George Biddle officiated. Cremation followed.

Beating victim Phyllis Mudge was described as in "good" condition by St. Joseph's Hospital authorities.

U.S. 'PURSUIT' THREAT

5 Red Jets Shot Down Over Strait

TAIPEI, Formosa (UPI)—Nationalist sabre jets shot down five Soviet-built Mig-17 jets and probably damaged another in two separate air battles near the offshore Quemoy islands, the Nationalist air force announced tonight.

An air force communique said the American-made Sabre jets also sank three Communist PT boats and damaged a fourth while flying cover for a convoy that again carried supplies to Big Quemoy.

The air force said its planes suffered no losses. All were flown by Nationalist Chinese airmen.

But U.S. air force planes and surface vessels were on convoy escort duty in the Formosa Strait, with orders to shoot back if attacked.

"The U.S. planes might just follow the Migs to mainland China bases and bomb those bases," Maj. R. G. Martin of the U.S. Marine Corps said. Martin is spokesman for the U.S.-Taiwan (Formosa) defence command.

His statement was the second in a week that U.S. planes might adopt a "hot pursuit" policy and chase Red aircraft to their mainland bases.

Rear Adm. Ralph S. Clarke, commander of naval task force 77 in the Formosa Strait, said last Thursday that pilots under his command were given permission to carry out "hot pursuit" if attacked.

He indicated this would be right up to and perhaps over the China mainland, at the pilot's discretion.

But Martin emphasized today U.S. jets would not strike out from the Formosa Strait into the Red-held mainland unless "provoked."

The latest aerial and sea battles took place after two Nationalist LSTs, each capable of carrying 1,300 tons of cargo, landed their supplies on the beach at Bib Quemoy under a rain of about 1,100 Red shells.

Today's announcement brought to 17 the number of MIGs the Nationalist air force claims its planes have shot down since the Reds started moving their superjet jets into new coastal airfields opposite Formosa in July.

Chiang Kai-shek's airmen have admitted losing only two Thunderjets and one Sabrejet in these battles.

Today's air and sea onslaught was the biggest launched against the Quemoy supply convoys since the U.S. Seventh Fleet started escorting the Nationalist vessels Sept. 7.

Never
So Good

CHICAGO (UPI)—The Ford Motor Co. made things a little more comfortable for 50 pickets who marched in a cold rain Wednesday before gates leading to the firm's assembly plant on Chicago's south side.

Company cafeteria employees came to the gates pushing carts loaded with sweet rolls and coffee urns. They passed out the rolls and coffee to the pickets with "compliments of the management."

The strikers put down their signs attacking the Ford firm to eat, and one bewildered picket, recalling previous UAW strikes, muttered: "I've never seen anything like this before."

Later a three-year agreement was signed. (See page 8.)

Warsaw Peace Talks Adjourned to Sunday

WARSAW (Reuters)—American-Chinese ambassadorial talks on the Formosa Strait crisis lasted almost two hours today and then adjourned until Sunday.

Jacob Beam, United States ambassador to Poland, and Chinese ambassador Wang Pingnan, left the meeting as wordlessly as they arrived.

The main purpose of the current meeting is to ease tension in the Formosa Strait offshore islands area.

TOKYO (AP)—Red China's

official mouthpiece today rejected the idea of a cease-fire in Formosa Strait while American and Red Chinese ambassadors confer in Warsaw on the crisis.

The rejection came in an article in the Peiping People's Daily.

Makes Appeal To UN

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (CP)—State Secretary Dulles of the United States declared today that the Chinese Communist campaign against Formosa "poses a grave threat, with ominous implications." He called for a prompt cease-fire.

Dulles made his comment in a policy address before the UN General Assembly as that 81-power body opened its 13th regular session. He expressed hope the talks now in progress in Warsaw between U.S. and Chinese ambassadors would end the current crisis, but reserved the right to bring the problem to the UN if the talks appeared headed for failure.

Dulles charged that the Chinese Communist regime now is attempting to extend its authority to the offshore islands "by use of naked force."

"The issue is thus a simple one: Armed conquest," he said. The current actions of the Peiping government demonstrates again that China is not "peace-loving"—a phrase used in the UN charter in defining requirements for membership in the world organization.

Dulles spoke a few hours before the assembly's steering committee was to consider whether the UN should debate the question of seating Red China. The committee was expected to reject an Indian proposal for such a debate.

PROMPT CEASE-FIRE

Referring to the Warsaw talks, Dulles said:

"We seek a prompt cease-fire and equitable conditions which will eliminate provocations and leave for peaceful solution the different claims and counter-claims that are involved."

"If it seems that the bilateral talks between ambassadors are not going to succeed, the United States reserves the right to bring this matter to the United Nations."

On other world problems Dulles said:

Hungary and Germany—The United Nations cannot let itself be discouraged by the refusal of the Soviet Union to end the "brutal suppression of the Hungarian people" and its refusal to help reunify Germany.

Infammatory Propaganda—The United States hopes the assembly will consider the possibility of establishing a monitoring system to report on inflammatory broadcasts in the Middle East.

UN Peace Force—He suggested that such a force could observe and patrol, but would not be equipped for combat. Its personnel would come from small countries and it would be directed by a small planning staff within the UN secretariat.

Disarmament—The U.S. will continue to press for worldwide measures to reduce the dangers of surprise attack.

Outer space—The U.S. will press for immediate UN action to bring about international co-operation in the peaceful uses of outer space.

Economic development—The U.S. is prepared to back a broad economic development program, both through its own contributions, through international agencies and through regional development agencies wherever the governments of the regions support such agencies. The U.S. also is ready to back the establishment of a new international development association, as an affiliate of the world bank.

Cut-Throat Trade Pattern Of Reds, Conference Topic

MONTREAL (CP)—Commonwealth countries today indicated they may appeal to Soviet bloc countries to join world trade pacts as a means of ending cut-throat competition that may wreck established markets for various products.

Australia's Trade Minister John McEwen led off on a two-hour discussion on the East-West trade issue at the Commonwealth trade conference and spokesmen said there appeared to be wide support for Australia's suggestions to negotiate with Russia and her satellites.

Trade Minister Churchill, speaking for Canada, was reported to have told the conference that Russia seems always to be selling products on the world market at a little less than the established price.

He said this seems to be an apparent, deliberate attempt by the Communists to disrupt established trade patterns.

Conference spokesmen said

that virtually every Commonwealth member country welcomed East-West trade but objected to this Soviet below-price trade practice.

Indian and Pakistani delegates told how Communist China was offering textiles at just one cent a yard below their prices. There were similar situations in tin, flax, aluminum, zinc and manganese.

Spokesmen said the conference felt Red China was using trade as a political weapon. For example, it showed off industrial machines at international fairs but when a person came to order some, there was no follow up. China didn't seem to have enough of the machines for sale.

While the conference emphasized the Soviet situation at the morning meeting, there were indications that smaller member countries may also later call for a showdown with Britain and other major powers in the plea for development of protective trade pacts.

Seems some minds are closed tighter'n th' shops on Wednesday.

Mister Dulles sez if thet Formosa bizness gits any more serious it'll be—well—serious.

Britain will accept more Canadian goods an' Canada will accept more British offers t' take 'em.

CURTAIN RODS BE HANGED!

He Buried His Mistakes in Garden

HALIFAX, Eng. (UPI)—Somehow Kenneth Elsworth,

38, couldn't get the hang of the curtain rods he was supposed to be assembling at a factory here.

He was always making mistakes and every time he did he was bawled out by his boss. That went on for some time until he thought of a way out.

To cover up his mistakes he decided to smuggle the faulty products out of the factory, take them home and bury them at the bottom of his garden.

Six years ago Elsworth figured he had had enough so he quit, moved to another city and got another job.

Then along came Mrs. Jessie Fox who took over Elsworth's old house. She was digging in the garden and there she uncovered 68 of Elsworth's mistakes.

Mrs. Fox worked for Elsworth's old firm and recognized the rods. She told her foreman who told the manager who called police who charged Elsworth with stealing the rods.

He pleaded guilty.

"I was allowed to make a few mistakes on the assembly line, but I made many mistakes," Elsworth told police in a statement read in court.

"I would do anything to stop the foreman shouting at me. So if I made more mistakes than I was supposed to I took the rods home and buried them."

Elsworth was freed after he promised to pay $56 to his old firm for the rods, plus court costs.

He is now a textile worker.

BONNER:

B.C. Can Double Markets in U.K.

Britain's reduction of import restrictions will double British Columbia's potential market there, Attorney General Robert Bonner forecast Wednesday.

Speaking in his dual capacity as trade and industry minister, Mr. Bonner said, "It is now up to manufacturers and salesmen of every B.C. exporting firm ... to extend their sales in this market."

British trade board president Sir Avid Eccles told a Commonwealth economic conference in Montreal earlier, the U.K. will make "almost a clean sweep" of controls on dollar imports of industrial, agricultural and office machinery and will remove controls on imports of Canadian salmon and newsprint.

He hinted import quotas on Canadian foodstuffs may be lifted next year. Mr. Bonner said this may be good news for the Okanagan apple industry, now limited in exports to Britain.

Salmon imports from North America, 80 per cent of them coming from B.C., have been stopped at the $12,000,000 mark annually. President of the B.C. Fishermen's Association, James Sinclair, noting a British fondness for B.C. sockeye, now looks for much higher sales.

Canada faces competition from Japan in the U.K. salmon market. To get a bigger share of the market, Canadian prices may have to be reduced.

Reaction to the lifting of import bans was as optimistic in other quarters.

Educated guesses as to how Canadian exports might increase to Britain ranged anywhere up to $50,000,000 a year. Canada's shipments to Britain last year rose to a near-record $738,000,000.

Of Canada's total exports of $738,000,000 to Britain last year, about 10 per cent, or some $73-

000,000, covered shipments of the restricted class of goods now made control-free. These included salmon and various machinery. Instead of $73,000,000, shipments now may range possibly up to $100,000,000 or more.

Newsprint previously was allowed into Britain under import permits. Now these permits no longer will be required.

MANY STORES DEFIANT

"They have the conviction that everyone should be treated the same and strictly speaking they're right."

Many drugstores and small retailers openly defied the law Wednesday afternoon. Canned goods, other than canned milk (which is permitted under the by-law), aspirins, combs and meat pies were sold openly in some stores.

Some drug stores, however, refused to sell anything but the permitted magazines, newspapers, soft drinks and candy.

In a few cases drug stores gave aspirins to customers complaining of headaches and told them to pay next day.

RULES MISINTERPRETED
On this point, however, Mr. Weicker of the South Vancouver Island Druggists' Association says they have misinterpreted the regulations.

"The regulations show that aspirins and other medicines may be sold in an emergency," he said, "and there is nothing to show that a headache is not an emergency."

Clerks in one pharmacy store sold everything from 22s and children's toys to birthday and greeting cards.

REGULAR CUSTOMERS
A number of small stores sold non-permissible goods to regular customers, but refused to sell them to people they did not know.

"After all we must take reasonable precautions," smiled a Chinese vendor.

The last of 600 questionnaires were sent out from city hall Wednesday to retailers affected by the shop-closing bylaw asking their preference between the present situation and a year-round six-day week.

Questionnaires have to be returned by Sept. 24.

RACE BARRIERS MUST FALL

'Mixed World Coming' West Indian Predicts

MONTREAL (CP)—A prominent West Indian sees the world of the future as a "multi-racial, plural community" moulded that way by the driving arising among under-privileged peoples.

Dr. C. G. D. LaCorbiniere, trade minister of the West Indies Federation, outlined his vision of a world of inter-mixed races to reporters at the Commonwealth trade talks.

The 46-year-old cabinet minister said he hoped increased emigration from the West Indies to Canada will be possible in due course. "These things take time," he said.

OUTLINES THEORY

Dr. LaCorbiniere went on to outline his theory that ultimately existing immigration barriers will break down before the need of people from different corners of the world to travel to new places, settle down and tackle opportunities to improve their lot.

The British-educated West Indian said:

"One day all the people of the world will be all over the world. We will have a multi-racial, plural community. The world can only end that way."

"Come to Trinidad where colors and races are all mixed up and you will see what I mean. Sooner or later the whole world must be that way whether we like it or not."

"Living together, understanding and education will bring this about. We can't stop it. It would be like trying to stop the world from spinning around."

Tax Laws May Foil Segregation Plan

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Officers of a private corporation established to take over Little Rock's closed high schools planned an organization meeting today amid predictions, from Negro leaders that the plan cannot stop integration.

Mrs. Gordon P. Oates, one organizer of the newly-incorporated Little Rock Private School Corporation, said the schools will be segregated if the firm operates them.

However, Mrs. L. C. Bates, president of the Arkansas branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said:

"When the schools open, be it under public or private guidance, Negro children will be there."

Segregationists have looked to private operation of city schools as one manoeuvre to avoid Supreme Court rulings that public school segregation is unconstitutional.

The justice department in Washington had no immediate comment. But its lawyers are known to feel that a transfer of public schools to private operation can be challenged successfully if continued use of public tax money is involved and if it can be shown that the conversion is only a device to avoid Supreme Court rulings.

All principals indicated they plan no action until after Little Rock's referendum 10 days from now.

Voters on that day will say whether they favor integration or segregation.

New Mid-East Peace Formula Reported at UN

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The United Arab Republic, Jordan and Lebanon are reported to have agreed to a plan for UN peace representatives in their countries.

Sources said Wednesday night the three powers gave their consent to Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld on his recent Middle Eastern trip.

Hammarskjöld is to report to the General Assembly by Sept. 30 on his progress toward ensuring peace in the troubled area and facilitating withdrawal of U.S. troops from Lebanon and British forces from Jordan. UN officials declined to comment on his progress.

UN PRESENCE

Hammarskjöld is believed to have advocated a plan for what was called a UN presence in three countries to watch for foreign interference. Both the outgoing government of Lebanon and King Hussein of Jordan have accused President Nasser's United Arab Republic of trying to overthrow them.

Although details were not made public, the sources indicated the three countries had accepted a form of Hammarskjöld's plan. Some diplomats said a roving UN ambassador would be named with aides in each country. Others said a peace committee might be established.

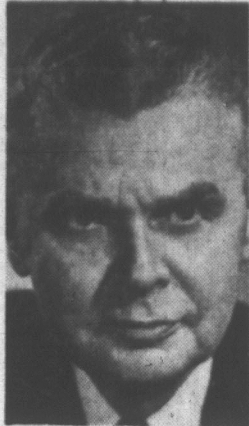

In either case, the sources said, Nasser refuses to accept a UN representative in Cairo but would permit one in the U.A.R.'s provincial capital of Syria-Damascus. Similar reports came from Cairo before Hammarskjöld returned to New York.

In a dispatch from Washington, the New York Times said the United States will make available to the U.A.R. about $5,000,000 in foreign aid pledged in 1953.

The funds were frozen when Nasser nationalized the Suez Canal in 1956. The Eisenhower administration had decided to release them in hope of bettering relations with the U.A.R. and a less hostile attitude by Nasser toward the United States, the Times said.

Trial Opens In Courtenay Traffic Death

NANAIMO (CP) — Trial of the fourth criminal negligence charge in the week-old Fall Asizes session began here Wednesday before Mr. Justice A. D. Macfarlane.

Accused is David Paetkau, 32, of Courtenay, charged in connection with the June 18 traffic death of Rosemary May, 13, who was struck down while riding her bicycle yards from her home west of Courtenay. The case continued today.

Sockeye Run Will Drop U.S. Fisherman Warns

SEATTLE (AP)—A veteran Everett commercial fisherman Wednesday predicted a sharp decline in the southerly run of sockeye salmon.

Paul Martinis also charged the International Pacific Salmon Fisheries Commission erred by permitting an excessively heavy catch.

The Fraser River run this year was a big one, hitting the 20-million fish mark that had been predicted. A great deal of the run, however, went around the north end of Vancouver Island, where fishing is barred to American fishermen.

It was not these salmon that concerned Martinis in his charges. Rather it was the management of operations in convention waters along the south end of the island and through the San Juans.

Martinis said this was the first time since 1914 he ever worked a seven-day week. The Americans were given the extra fishing days in an attempt to equalize their catch with that of Canadian boats.

Equalization of the catch in convention waters is one of the primary concerns of the commission.

Last year when the American fishermen's catch was exceeding that of the Canadians at the peak of the run, the commission ordered the American boats to fish two days a week, he said.

This year, with the Canadians in front by approximately 1,000,000 fish, they were not cut down. Instead the Americans were told to step-up operations to catch up.

Through some freak of the fun, the sockeye were taking Canadian waters through the Strait of Juan de Fuca and the Canadian boats were making a killing. No attempt was made by the commission, Martinis said, to permit a greater escapement at this point to permit the American boats to equalize the catch.

Canadians averaged approximately 25,000 fish per boat, the Americans between 7,000 and 8,000 fish, Martinis said.

As a result, Martinis believes, the run around the north end of the island, which he thinks has been building up through the years and is not just a warm-water freak run, will increase and the run through the convention waters will diminish. Only four years and another sockeye cycle is going to show who is right, he said.

BREGENZ, Austria (Reuters) — About 56 miles of plastic pipeline will carry milk from 100 outlying farms to the dairies of Vorarlberg, West Austria, under a 10-year investment plan announced by the province's chamber of agriculture.

'NEW AVENUE' SOUGHT IN DOCKERS' STRIKE

VANCOUVER (CP)—Federal mediator Eric G. Taylor said Wednesday negotiators are attempting to explore some new avenue with regard to the pension issue in the long-shoremen's strike.

"Unfortunately I can report no development so far," The mediator leaves for the East at the end of the week.

Seeking Stability

LAST WEEK THE BRITISH Columbia Chamber of Commerce presented to the Provincial Government a series of recommendations it believes will tend to establish greater stability in labor relations.

Next week the Union of British Columbia Municipalities' resolution committee will have before it several suggestions seeking the same condition in matters related to municipal employer-employee affairs.

The preparation of such resolutions from the two distinct groups reflects the public's general concern over conditions disrupting production and services throughout British Columbia. The public is alarmed by the losses incurred in strikes this year, is confused by and dissatisfied with the ineffectiveness of present legislation and wants a greater measure of protection against further dislocation.

There are several significant points raised by the Chamber proposals. One recommendation calls for the repeal or amendment of acts granting special privileges to unions not accorded to individuals and other organizations. In another clause the recommendation underlines the issue by urging that unions, like individuals and other entities, become subject to the rule of law as administered in the courts. That would mean the declaration of unions as organizations which can sue or be sued.

The B.C. Chamber further seeks removal of regulations which would deny or terminate employment of the individual who is not, or ceases to be, a member of a trade union—though it would not ask elimination tion of dues' payments by employees within a bargaining unit.

Furthermore, the provincial group asks that the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council be empowered to refer any specific labor dispute to compulsory binding arbitration where it is considered that a strike or lock-out would place in jeopardy the health and safety of the general public.

This narrows substantially the field of activities for which compulsory arbitration has often been recommended. More generally that method of settlement is urged for public utilities and essential services—a wider range than the Chamber is prepared to cover.

Organized labor will doubtless challenge these recommendations—as it is entitled to. But when the challenges are made, organized labor must consider the effects some recent strikes have had on the public—the innocent bystander who has been seriously injured by labor strife.

And labor, viewing the possible reaction to public pressure on the Government for action on these issues, may profitably note the position taken by the Federal Government on the Coast steamship strike.

Mr. Diefenbaker led the Conservatives to power on a platform including a plank strenuously opposing compulsory arbitration. When the chips were down, his government adopted the policy defined in the term, "not necessarily compulsion, but compulsion if necessary." In adopting that attitude, Ottawa reflected the sentiments of the public as accurately as possible by an instrument highly sensitive to public sentiment.

A Local Farce

THE PROBLEM OF LOCAL shop-closing legislation has been placed in its proper perspective by the police announcement that henceforth the law will be rigorously enforced. It has quickly become apparent that the regulations have been tolerated by merchants and public alike only because they were largely ignored.

In the strict letter of the law, all service stations must remain closed on Sundays; drug stores may open on Sundays only to fill doctor's prescriptions. The sale of other goods, either on Sunday or Wednesday afternoon, is severely restricted to a few items of food and tobacco and confectionery. All other sales, according to the law, are illegal. The existence of such curbs in the law books has been accepted in the past only because they were not enforced.

Neglect of law enforcement is a very serious thing for any community or nation. Disregard of foolish laws soon encourages contempt for good ones. The remedy for a law no one wants is not to ignore its violation but to remove the law from the books.

Such revision of the law is now being demanded by those who favor a six-day shopping week in Victoria, and current developments certainly lend weight to their case.

The situation is brought almost to a farcical state by the action of Saanich in removing all store-hour restrictions, in an effort to permit economic forces to determine sane and satisfactory store policy.

The effect of complete liberty in Saanich and severe restriction in Victoria will be merely to drive the city stores' customers over the line to shop in the neighboring municipality. What this will mean to the business of chain stores and private establishments—and to their future policies of store location—should soon become apparent.

The present situation in Victoria becomes indefensible: it is unsatisfactory to the public, the merchants and the police. Council action to rectify it has passed beyond a desirable innovation; it is now an obvious necessity.

The Mounting Problem

THE QUESTION OF SCHOOL integration in Arkansas has been returned from the judicial to the political arena. The ruling of the U.S. Supreme Court, that integration in Little Rock proceed without delay, leaves the Governor of Arkansas in direct defiance of federal law and the President of the United States faced with the task of doing something about it.

All Little Rock high schools are now closed, as the result of state legislation rushed through a few days ago in anticipation of the Supreme Court decision. How Washington can get them open again is a question fraught with political as well as sociological troubles.

With federal law being defied, the problem takes on wider significance. Can a state governor refuse to carry out a federal directive and get away with it? That is a question the answer to which will be watched closely by a number of southern states in which integration of Negro students in the schools is a vital issue.

Obviously the federal law must prevail in the end, if the Union is to survive. But its triumph may be marked by tragic events, which could well extend their effects far into the future.

Mr. Eisenhower has hinted that his personal inclination is to go slow with integration. If this is so, he now has a conflict of timing between his own ideas and those of the Supreme Court whose edicts he is sworn to uphold. That is an added worry as he finds himself faced with one of the most important decisions a President has been called upon to make.

The Reeve Is Not Satisfied

DEFENCE MINISTER GEORGE Pearkes has informed the Saanich Council that the department of transport considers float plane operations on Elk Lake no hazard and is unwilling to restrict flying operations there.

Reeve George Chatterton is "not satisfied" with the statement forwarded by the minister who is Saanich's federal representative. Neither, it is safe to say, are thousands of other people in this community.

In recent years Elk Lake has vastly increased in popularity as a swimming resort and outing place for families. If it is to be a safe area for such use, it cannot, at the same time, be a centre for aircraft landing and taking off.

The authorities, and Saanich's council is surely the most closely identified with the lake, ought to know the difficulties of mixing the two recreations, flying and simpler water sports. Saanich does. That is why the council has sought the banning of planes from the area.

The question has been raised before: Who is to enjoy Elk Lake? The ordinary family which wants to picnic, swim and possibly fish? Or the relatively few individuals who can afford their private planes?

When the interests of the two categories clash, there should be no doubt over the one with the predominant claim to consideration.

Chiang Speaks Out

CHIANG KAI-SHEK on Monday condemned as "no solution" the convoy system by which the American command here hopes against hope to break the blockade of Quemoy. The President-Generalissimo promised to be patient. But he added firmly that if the blockade continued, he would soon be forced to order his air force to attack the Chinese Communist artillery positions that are now keeping the Quemoy beaches under heavy fire. Whether or no this strangest war enters this new and much more inflamed stage, will apparently depend upon the first results of the Warsaw talks.

The American policy-makers plan to seek an informal cease-fire at Warsaw. If obtained, a cease-fire will automatically lift the artillery blockade of Quemoy.

The U.S. government has therefore begged the President-Generalissimo to wait and see what happens when the Warsaw talks begin.

Limited Waiting

While Chiang Kai-shek expressed the sharpest distaste for the Warsaw talks themselves, he said he was willing to wait because he "understood how important it was for President Eisenhower to prove to the world that he was sparing no effort to preserve the peace." On the other hand, Chiang indicated that he could not wait very long.

"Your people and ours are working closely together to improve the convoy system," he said. "The Americans want to help us, and I am grateful. But it is no solution. You cannot supply 130,000 soldiers and civilians by improving the convoy system, when all supplies have to be landed on open beaches under heavy fire. That is the present problem at Quemoy."

"There's only one real solution to the problem—to attack it at the source. It's happened before. The last time the Communists attempted a really big artillery attack on Quemoy was Sept. 3, 1954. When we retaliated by attacking the Communist gun positions with our planes, artillery attack on Quemoy was stopped at once."

Happen Again

"In my opinion, the same thing will happen again. Certainly we are going to have to do the same thing again if the blockade continues. I cannot leave 130,000 of my people blockaded as they now are, without using all my resources to retaliate and to break the blockade."

Thus the President-Generalissimo confirmed his widely suspected intention to take the crucial step which almost all the Chinese leaders wish to take at once.

The Communist air force has been immensely strengthened since 1954. The American command here does not agree that Nationalist air attacks on mainland targets will produce the same results as in 1954. An immediately widened and perhaps uncontrollable war is the result now forecast.

Yet one got the impression that Chiang Kai-shek would be hard to hold "ch longer. He received me at one of his unpretentious country retreats, where he goes from time to time to make his big decisions in peace.

Curiously enough, he seemed younger than he did on the last such occasion, after the evacuation of the Tachen Islands. Then he looked ill, old and defeated. Today, he was all firmness and serenity; the fine head was finely born; the slender figure was graceful and erect; and one's first thought was, "How kind the years have been to him!"

Mounting Criticism

The President-Generalissimo's apparent serenity hardly arose from complete satisfaction with recent American policy-maneuvres. When he was asked about the mounting and increasingly bitter criticism in the Chinese press of the ineffectual convoy system and other American actions, he replied shortly, "Facts are facts."

He then added that he did not join the criticism, because he understood the difficulties of President Eisenhower's position better than most people here.

In this matter of just what to say about President Eisenhower, indeed, the President-Generalissimo seemed much less at ease than in the more grave matter of what to do about the Quemoy blockade. It was evident that he had been much disturbed by the slight hint in the President's speech of some sort of deal with the Communists concerning the offshore islands and by the subsequent interpretations of this hint in the American press.

Firm Spirit

"I have read President Eisenhower's speech," he said. "Its spirit is firm. It takes a clear and definite stand. I cannot find in it any implication of neutralization or demilitarization of Quemoy and the Matsus. More than once, indeed, the President stated that he would not be a party to any arrangement which might prejudice the interests of his ally. This should leave no room for doubt."

"As to the resumption of talks at Warsaw, it is a loss. Yet I feel that the United States, with due regard for its position, is only trying to find a peaceful settlement. This desire deserves understanding, instead of opposition or objection."

Again, the President-Generalissimo said that anyone who suspected President Eisenhower of desiring neutralization or demilitarization of Quemoy and the Matsus was guilty of "misinterpretation—in fact, malicious conjecture. This is not only slanderous to the President but also an insult to Chinese territorial sovereignty."

There were other such strong assertions that the American government cannot possibly be thinking about what several Washington correspondents have said the government is thinking about.

Polite Warning

They were no doubt intended to serve warning, in a polite way, that any attempt to make a deal about the islands in Warsaw will meet with the most ferocious and determined opposition here.

Yet in the context of the local military situation, this warning was distinctly less important than Chiang Kai-shek's simpler military warning of forthcoming air action to break the Quemoy blockade if the blockade is not soon lifted.

"We can't sit idly by and let the Communists enforce a tight blockade of Quemoy," he said. "We can't abandon our people on the islands. For the time being, we are exercising great self-restraint. We have not attacked their gun positions, supply lines and coastal bases. But when and if the critical moment comes, we'll have no choice except to exercise our right of self-defence. And I firmly believe that once we retaliate in force in this manner, then the Communists will back down as they did before."

Britain's Racial Problems

United Kingdom Information Service

IT was not until recent years that there was any considerable influx of colored immigrants into Britain from Commonwealth countries and colonial territories. The United Kingdom is the only Commonwealth country which possesses no powers to exclude or expel citizens of other Commonwealth countries. British subjects from Commonwealth territories also enjoy the right of unrestricted entry and can acquire citizenship of the United Kingdom and Colonies by registration after 12 months' residence.

In the immediate post-war years, while conditions of labor shortage existed in the United Kingdom, the immigration of this mostly unskilled labor met a need.

Colored people in the United Kingdom are now estimated to total about 200,000, of whom 110,000 are from the West Indies and 54,000 from India and Pakistan. During the first seven months of 1958 there was a net increase of 20,000, including 11,000 West Indians, as against 17,000 in the corresponding period of 1957.

This has coincided with a slackening of the demand for labor, particularly unskilled labor. This seems likely to be intensified in the coming months.

The Commonwealth and Colonial governments concerned have been warned of the position and asked to do what they can to bring the facts to the notice of would-be emigrants to Britain. But the latter, particularly West Indians, continue to arrive.

These colored immigrants naturally tend to "concentrate in certain areas where work and cheap accommodation are or have been available. In general, they have been accepted into the community. There is very little racial prejudice.

When incidents have occurred they have almost invariably arisen from undercurrents of jealousy over extraneous things, e.g. accommodation, employment or women.

The immigrants have of course included a proportion of undesirables whose misdeeds have received disproportionate publicity. Colored people are easily recognizable "foreigners."

They are sometimes more flamboyant in their behavior (this is particularly so with West Indians) and they are an obvious and easy target for hooliganism of the kind which has been causing some concern in this country for some time.

Although Press publicity for recent incidents has sometimes been of a sensational kind the entire Press has joined wholeheartedly in condemning them. Magistrates have made it clear that breaches of the peace will be treated with the utmost severity. London ring-leaders were sentenced to four years in prison.

After the second incident in Nottingham the magistrate commented that the presence of the city's colored population had been used as an excuse to create a violent disturbance. Members of Parliament have also condemned "a blot on the conscience of Britain" and there will certainly be many questions when Parliament reassembles.

And Possible Remedies

From The Times (London)

IF one considers the numbers convicted, the age and background of the offenders, and the type of locality involved, it might be tempting to dismiss the current outbreak of race violence as insignificant...

Unfortunately, there are many reasons why the present outbreaks cannot be disregarded. First, trivial in scale though they may be, the whole modern apparatus of Press and radio has been concentrated upon them to delight or dismay disputants in all the corners of the earth where race relations are a crucial issue.

Secondly, the colored population has been growing recently to a size where it makes impact at first hand on British life. The British for the first time are being submitted to a test of how they can deal in fact, as apart from theory, with race differences at home.

Thirdly, there is the destruction of confidence which the riots threaten among the whole coloured community of the Commonwealth.

Finally, all these factors have to be viewed in the light of the present state of the world. They cannot be isolated or divorced from what is going on elsewhere.

Mass Readjustment

Today, the most important development in world history is the readjustment of the relationship between the West, particularly western Europe, and the great masses of the world who are non-white. The process of readjustment is going on all the time in the political field, and in the economic; in personal contacts, and in contacts between Governments; here painfully, there easily; in Kuala Lumpur, in Baghdad, in Little Rock, and in Nottingham Hill.

Many in Asia and Africa suspect, and some preach, that Britain's public stance on the racial issue is purely hypocritical. If the masses should believe this to be true, then indeed Britain's enemies would have cause to rejoice. The Commonwealth would not long survive the disillusion.

What can be done to prevent the evil spreading? The police will do all they can to end immediate violence and no doubt they will be successful. But it is certain that the trouble will be recurrent and cumulative, unless remedies are applied to causes...

It has been impossible to get any sort of public inquiry on racial matters and it is excessively hard to raise money for private ones. It is impossible to tackle social evils without adequate information and there has been little tendency to seek it where race relations are concerned. The first need therefore is for more social studies, more inquiry, and more information, and this means that more public money must be forthcoming for such purposes.

The second need is for more education in the schools. At the moment the average English child's conception of Asia and Africa does not go much beyond the ideas culled from strip cartoons and horror comics.

A third need is proper co-ordinating machinery in government. Because official Britain closes its eyes to there being such a thing as color discrimination, the colored man is dealt with by the various departments of State according to his need or function. There is no one Minister concerned with his problems and welfare.

Finally, the laws governing the presence of colored persons in Britain need an enlightened but firm overhaul.

This is, of course, pre-eminently a Commonwealth affair. There are two measures which might be taken. The more drastic would be to enforce the same rules and regulations as to entry of migrants which Commonwealth and colonial countries enforce against Britain...

Granted that the object of the measure was to reduce racial tension, it would almost certainly have unforeseen and harmful effects. It is a counsel of despair. It should not be countenanced.

There is a far stronger case for the expulsion of convicted undesirables. There are certain crimes in this country, such as living on prostitutes' earnings, in which immigrants from outside Britain play far too big a part. It is quite wrong that offenders of this kind should be immune from deportation just because they happen to be born within the Commonwealth and not in a foreign country.

Color Problem

The time has come to admit that there is a color problem in our midst. It would be wrong to exaggerate it. It would be disastrous to appear to give way in the face of violence. But to ignore the existence of the problem altogether is to invite disaster.

Happily there is a precedent which affords some grounds for optimism. In the years just after the war there was grave and justifiable anxiety about the treatment of the many colored students in our universities. The non-scholastic side of their life was made the special responsibility of the British Council, whereupon a spectacular improvement followed.

The case of the colored working man is more complex and less manageable than that of the student, but what has been possible with the one should not be impossible with the other.

As Our Readers See It

Eliminating Jobs

When one peruses the various "letters to the editor" in different daily publications, it is quite evident we are living in a democratically controlled country with the obvious freedom of expressing our views. Furthermore, we don't have to think alike.

I note a letter from B. P. Johnston, Milnes Landing, B.C., captioned "Riders and Unionists," claiming the corporations, with annual profits mounting each year, have declared war on the trade unions, now that the reserve army of unemployed is heavy, the "right to work law" is proving to be the "right to scab law."

As an old retired farmer with over 56 years active life in Canada, I would ask B. P. Johnston, where are we heading, judging by the trend of events?

Canada with a huge territory and a population of 17 million people, depends entirely on exporting its products to enjoy prosperity and what do we find?

Unemployment due to strikes after strikes, until we have no mercantile fleet, and goods from elsewhere supplying our own needs. For instance, I bought recently rubber boots to wear in my garden and was surprised to discover a "made in Hong Kong" stamp. We have kitchenware, "made in Italy," ladies' wear Spain. B.C. centennial goods from Japan, small cars from all over, but our own factories shut down.

A little over three years ago, June, '55, after a lengthy automobile strike, when Edsel Ford and Walter Reuther finally got together to iron out grievances, Ford had what he thought was an ace up his sleeve to influence Reuther, which was an offer to the United Auto Workers Union, Ford shares (then 160 or so) at 50% of their value.

Did Reuther grab it? No, he wasn't influenced, and eventually settled for an agreement guaranteeing annual pay. Does not that show how indifferent labor is to the feature of whether their employers are prosperous or not?

After Hoffa, Beck and a host of other exposures of American Federation of Labor activities, Canada's hope really depends on remaining aloof and free of this ruthless intimidation which characterizes the U.S. actions.

No wonder Nikita Khrushchev is so confident of their final supremacy. Strikes are quickly dissipated there and no fooling.

Fan Fare

SO Eddie Fisher and Debbie Reynolds have had a bustup, and Liz Taylor's in the thick of it.

So what?

It's news, they tell me. Front page news. Well, so were Lana Turner, daughter Cheryl, and the knife in Stompanato's belly. But who remembers them these days? To millions of sensation seekers, that affair is just another gob of exciting dirt that went down the drain.

As for me, I can't keep track of Hollywood's high-priced romps from bed to bed. Indeed, I'm waiting for the day when someone writes a Hollywood Who's Who entitled "From Sex Kitten to Alley Cat." Because that seems to be about the size of it.

It may be curiously old-fashioned, but I am still more interested in how an actress acts on the screen than in who she goes to bed with when she's off it.

That, I begin to think, makes me queer.

And, as a newspaper reader, I'd put Lebanon ahead of Liz, and Formosa way ahead of Fisher.

Which just shows that I don't have the right, worshipful attitude towards publicity.

For, if the Lana Turner affair is any indication of the public's attitude toward motion picture stars, this Reynolds-Fisher-Taylor rumpus should do the box office a world of good.

Ruth

Already, dear Dorothy Kilgallen is marvelling at the fact that Debbie Reynolds's next picture is entitled "Why Good Girls Stay Married." Its title will be changed, she predicts, because 99 per cent of Show Biz Sympathy is with Debbie.

But I bet that another faction is gloating over the fact that the irony of a title like that would really pack the public in. "Look what Lana's picture did," they'll say. "The one that was rushed to completion because it so closely resembled the Stompanato chapter in her own life."

"What Liz needs now," they'll argue, "is a gorgeous motion picture vehicle about a lovely young widow who screamed and almost fainted at her husband's funeral but soon found consolation in breaking up a much-publicized marriage. We'll picture her as haunting and lovely in her search for happiness."

And, in thousands of theatres, masses of drab little people will chomp on their popcorn, and gaze up adoringly at this beautiful young woman who is behaving like an utter fool.

It would be fine, of course, if we could write this sort of thing off as beneath our notice. I don't see how we can. By the publicity we give to such people, we make a mockery of the sturdy, enduring qualities that make a strong and sane society.

We also make a mockery of what home and school and church are trying to teach the young.

The Psychopath

Emeritus Consultant in Medicine, Mayo Clinic and Emeritus Professor of Medicine, Mayo Foundation

One of the great problems of humanity is what to do with the psychopathic delinquents. They are people who apparently were born without any conscience, or sense of decency, or desire to live a normal and useful life.

A good example is that of the man in Colorado who, a few years ago, in order to get some money for a binge, insured his mother's life and put her on an aeroplane with a time bomb that killed her, and incidentally took the lives of 43 other innocent persons.

A significant fact was that, later, when asked if he wasn't sorry about the deaths of all these people who had done him no harm, he said, "No"; so far as he was concerned, people were just like cattle, and he had no interest in them.

One reads that these delinquents are born often into good and highly respectable families. This is true; but curiously, in practically every case I have studied, I have found some skeleton in the family closet: there were some ancestors who were psychotic or alcoholic or "not quite right."

Dr. George N. Thompson, an able psychiatrist, spent many years studying these people as they came into juvenile court of Los Angeles. He finally wrote an excellent book on them in which he admitted he had lost hope of ever helping them. There just isn't anything in them to build on. There is no spark of decency—nothing to appeal to.

These people are often bright and socially attractive and even gifted. They can be most ingratiating, and as a result, often a well-to-do man or woman will almost adopt one of them to see if he cannot rehabilitate the fellow and make a good man of him. But always, the do-gooder soon finds that his protégé is stealing from him or writing worthless cheques, or is victimizing some of his friends.

Anyone who wants to get a vivid idea of what these mischievous, amoral children with a large body are like should read Dr. Hervey Cleckley's brilliant book, "The Mask of Sanity" (Mosby). He described a lad of this type who, while his parents were out of town

HOME GARDEN

By JACK BEASTALL

Home Produce Value Not Set in Dollars

Several hours a week, plus several weekends, added to the price of seeds, fertilizers, sprays, tools and sundries, make up the total cost of producing fruits and vegetables in the home garden.

It is an outlay not easily converted into dollars and cents.

The inimitable flavor of garden-fresh vegetables in quantity gathered at the peak of perfection, berries and fruits which have attained full ripeness on the plants, and a supply in storage to give zest and variety to winter meals, add up to the returns on the original investment.

This income, together with the bonus accrued from working in the open air, having a satisfying hobby, and making lasting friendships with other gardeners, is also difficult to compute in cash.

The profits which are banked are the fruits and vegetables stored for winter use. Whether these will be withdrawn and used or be lost before they are needed depends on the handling they receive.

No better advice can be given the gardener who is harvesting his produce than that given trainees by their head-gardener tutor.

At harvest time he admonished his pupils to handle each fruit and vegetable as if it were the only one in existence and having a value beyond the wealth of any man.

He could have said that more home-stored produce is lost through bruising and damaging while being harvested than from any other cause, for careless handling is the beginning of most storage rots.

WHY I SUPPORT COMMUNITY CHEST

Today: Mrs. May Calver, Clerk-Stenographer.

"I support the Community Chest because I believe everybody should who is in a position to do so.

"We cannot expect to make Victoria a city relatively free of needy families and victims of unfortunate circumstances if we do not all pitch in and help. And help for most of us must consist of backing up financially the people who directly take care of distressed families and individuals.

"However, like many people, I would give more support to the Chest if it represented all the charities, and not just 20 of them. People would much rather give to one central agency, than several.

"The Community Chest is doing a great job and an effective job already, but it could probably do a much better and bigger one if it represented every agency in town.

"It seems such a development will come one day, and now might be a better time than later to bring it about. But a really united appeal is coming, that's obvious, and that's why I support the Community Chest.

"I believe in that word 'community.' The chest really stands for a charity community, and I am for it."

Free Hand Wanted By City In Sale Of Public Lands

The city will seek the support of the Union of British Columbia Municipalities convention for an amendment to the Municipal Act which would give it a freer hand in dealing with and selling public properties.

The proposal was added today to a list of resolutions the city plans to submit to the UBCM convention in Nanaimo next week.

It calls for the removal of all restrictions which hamper the sale of municipal-owned lands. Under the present Act, the city cannot sell any parcel of land wanted by some other public body, such as the school board, water or parks board.

Valuable Oil Maps Believed Stolen

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Federal and oil company officials are trying to track down reports that oil maps valued at $7,000,000 have been stolen.

Gordon Kroll, lawyer for the Edgar Tobin Aerial Survey Company, said the maps were made by the Tobin firm and sold to major oil companies.

He said it is believed the maps were stolen from one or more oil companies and photostated. The maps covered 20,000 square miles of southern Louisiana.

Kroll said it was learned through rumors three months ago that photostatic copies of Tobin maps were being offered for sale.

The Day YOU Were Born

Rosemarie Wannamaker, 3551 Doncaster Drive, is in Grade 2 at Doncaster school. She is an enthusiastic "hooper" though not as yet very expert.

Rosemarie and her little friend Ann Doran put on neighborhood concerts and plays and collect donations for the Red Cross.

On the day she was born: King George VI was examined by nine doctors and an official bulletin stated that "structural changes" had taken place in the King's lung.

NATO debated whether Greece and Turkey should be admitted.

The Esquimalt by-election roused heated controversy: Independent A. C. Wurtle was criticized for joining the Coalition rebel, W. A. C. Bennett.

Premier Byron Johnson replied sharply to a questioner at a View Royal meeting who charged that the firm of Evans, Coleman & Johnson were favored in the matter of government contracts.

"Are you inferring that I am connected with this firm," the premier flared, and went on to state that he had severed any connection when he took office.

John A. McLellan announced that he would run for Victoria alderman on the same "open door" ticket as mayoralty candidate Claude Harrison.

Mr. Harrison commenting on the new candidate, said: "Good. He is an honest man."

Dominion census figures gave city council a scare—it appeared that the city had lost 12,000 tax payers, but it was later learned that the loss after all was only 4,300.

The date? Tuesday, September 18, 1951.

Sons Signing Up For Russia Move

VANCOUVER (CP)—Freedomite Doukhobor secretary Bill Moojelsky reported Wednesday that members of his sect have started signing citizenship renunciation forms to pave the way for their move to Siberia.

WINTER FERRY VITAL LINK

George Warren, director of the Victoria Publicity Bureau, said today he was pleased with the announcement that the CPR will resume its winter boat service to Seattle this winter.

"I feared the winter service would be discontinued by the CPR this year," he said. "This must never be allowed to happen. We would be without any connection with the U.S. mainland."

"It was a relief to learn that winter schedules were going into effect next week," he added.

Moojelsky said Freedomites have been signing the forms, in "a steady trickle" all week. "I have signed my form—in fact all my family now is signed up," Moojelsky said.

Other Freedomite leaders who have already signed, he said, include John Perpelkin, chairman of the Sons of Freedom Fraternal Council; Peter Elaso and Joe Gevatkow, both council members.

"Signing will be general by the end of the week and should be heaviest Sunday when men return to Krestova from jobs in other parts of the province," he said.

Eagles and falcons may live for 100 years, and parrots and swans for perhaps 80 years.

'DISCIPLINE DISSOLVES FRUSTRATION'—GAGLARDI

TORONTO (CP)—Parents today have "abdicated their responsibility to their own children," thus opening the floodgates for juvenile insurrection, says Hon. Philip Gagliardi, Pentecostal pastor and British Columbia highways minister.

"Youth loves authority and loves to be disciplined because discipline absolutely dissolves frustration," he said in an interview Tuesday at the fifth World Pentecostal conference.

'Our Right to Strike Must Be Maintained'

VANCOUVER (CP)—The unions affiliated with the labor council, told Tuesday's meeting, "No union wants to strike, but when our backs are to the wall, that right is essential."

Mr. Stewart moved the resolution adopted unanimously, directed against "any attempt to bring compulsory arbitration into this province."

Hartford, Conn., headquarters of many insurance companies, was first settled by the Dutch Boilermakers' Union, one of 163 in 1633.

Miner's Son in High Post

OTTAWA (CP)—For the second time in its history, the United Church of Canada has chosen a son of a Cape Breton coal miner to be its moderator.

The 18th biennial general council of Canada's largest Protestant church—membership is about 1,000,000—Wednesday night elected 46-year-old Rev. Angus J. MacQueen, pastor of the First St. Andrew's United in London, Ont., as its new moderator.

Mr. MacQueen later told reporters he was not expecting to be elected. He succeeds Rt. Rev. James S. Thomson of Montreal and will hold the highest office in the church for the next two years.

Mr. MacQueen came close to being the youngest man ever elected moderator. Dr. C. M. Nicholson, also a Cape Breton miner's son, was also 46 years old but 15 days younger than Mr. MacQueen when elected to the post in 1950.

Dr. Thomson, 66, said in his outgoing address that he has found signs of a rising interest in religion among Canadians.

There had always been considerable wickedness in the world, but people today had more opportunities for its indulgence "and more money to do it with."

He had found some changes in the religious interests of university students.

"They want to know what we mean by God. They want to understand His ways with men. They want to penetrate to the heart of our teaching about the person of Christ and His Gospel."

FALSE ALARM BOAT SOS BLAMED ON PORPOISES

A school of blackfish or porpoises playing among the white caps in Juan de Fuca Strait Wednesday is believed responsible for reports of a small boat in trouble.

Oak Bay police and a B.C. Pilotage launch investigated the reports, which said a small boat with two men in it seemed to be in trouble about a mile off Chinese Point.

The launch searched for more than an hour, while police and a pilotage despatcher scoured the area with binoculars from shore.

There was no sign of boat or men.

World Championships 'Once-In-a-Lifetime' Thrill

Bob Tetzlaff, the California Centurion who won the Times Centennial 100-mile bicycle race in June, a trip to France and a chance to compete in the world amateur championships at Rheims, returned home this week. He wrote his impressions of the trip and the world championships exclusively for The Daily Times.

By BOB TETZLAFF
It wasn't good, but if, there is any consolation, I at least beat all other North American entries.

Although I finished 69th in the field, I feel that I learned a lot from the world championship race.

Perhaps the most important lesson I learned is that it's a must to be in Europe, at least a month before the race. I wasn't there long enough to get acclimatized.

Because of this, I had trouble sleeping. The first night I arrived in Rheims I slept 21 hours. The night before the race, I could not get to sleep at all.

However, I felt pretty good the day before the race and felt that I was about as well prepared for the race as I ever would be.

Bob Best, who placed third in the Times' race, was also practicing before the world championships and planned to ride as a teammate. This was a pleasant surprise, since I did not see him during those few days before the race.

Almost 100,000 persons were on hand to witness the big event. Countless millions must have watched it on TV.

The entire race was televised—a full five hours. Cameras followed us in vans right behind the riders, overhead in helicopters, and stood ready at appointed places on the sidelines as the riders flashed by.

It was a spectacle I have never seen outdone anywhere, and this includes ANY sporting event in the United States, except that on the following day, the professional race drew twice the crowds and caused even greater excitement. I have been to the famous Rose Bowl football games twice, and neither time did it compare with the cycling events in Rheims.

As I said earlier, I finished 69th—and believe me, I was finished!

When I dropped from the main group of riders with three of those 12-mile laps still to go, I had all sorts of thoughts in my mind. I felt I was letting down a lot of people. I was positive I was in last place. I expected the crowds to laugh or even make cutting remarks, as one so often hears at an athletic meet.

To my surprise I was encouraged by the crowds. And—even more surprising—I was not last.

I feel that I have learned many valuable lessons and I am certain I will do better next time. I do not like to lose, but whenever I meet defeat I try to learn from my mistakes.

The winner, Schurr of East Germany, rode a magnificent race and won the sprint by one yard. The second and third-place finishers were Belgians. One of them might have won, but was almost crowded off the course by his teammate. I finished 15 minutes later.

In the professional race the next day, Baldini, Bobet and Nencini broke away from the main pack with 150 miles to go.

Nencini blew up with three laps to go and Baldini dropped

Bobet with two to go. He broke the lap record as he rode away alone to become world champion, and a new "Championissimo" to his Italian countrymen.

Bobet rode like a champion, too; never slackening, and finished second two minutes behind Baldini and three minutes ahead of the field.

After the race, and for the week, I was occupied mainly with other pro races. I helped our American boys as their trainer. When they were eliminated, we all became spectators together.

During the last week of my trip, I stayed in Paris, visiting famous sights and having a wonderful time.

Everyone should visit Paris. I spent a full day in the Louvre Museum and I didn't even begin to see everything.

But then I had to return home, via the Canadian Pacific Airlines polar route.

It was fun and hard work—but if I ever again get the chance to compete in the world championship, I feel that I should be able to give a fair account of myself.

GEORDIE PLAYS TONIGHT

Switsons Get 'Rocks' Goalie

Welland-Crowland Switsons received permission Wednesday from the Canadian Lacrosse Association to use Victoria Shamrock goaltender Geordie Johnston for tonight's second game and for the duration of the Mann Cup finals at New Westminster.

Johnston replaces regular goalie Justin Howe, who suffered a badly injured back during Tuesday's opening game at Queens' Park Arena—and it appears unlikely that he will play again this year.

Third game of the series goes Monday.

Switsons took a 20-7 drubbing from New Westminster in the opening game Tuesday.

Swifton manager Bob Ormsby couldn't promise anything but an improvement after the way his team floundered and staggered through four periods of lacrosse.

NOT GOOD

"We looked terrible," he said. Since arriving in the west, the Welland-Crowland squad has been running into the short end of lady luck with amazing consistency.

Skip Teal, who scored two goals for the easteners in the opener, was suspended by Quebec Aces of the Quebec Hockey League for failing to report to the club's training camp that opened Monday. The psychological effects of the suspension could slow the Ontario squad's ace scorer.

EAST WANTS GREY CUP

Brisk Bidding Follows Fumble

By The Canadian Press

There are only 61 shopping days left till Grey Cup time and the Canadian Football League is still seeking a stadium.

The match to decide the top Canadian professional football team is scheduled for Vancouver's Empire Stadium Nov. 29.

But, it is reported, the game may yet be switched to Toronto's Varsity or Montreal's McGill stadium because the price is too high in Vancouver.

The whole muddle could be settled today at a meeting in Vancouver among officials of the CFL, the Grey Cup committee and the Pacific Northwest Exhibition, operators of city-owned Empire Stadium.

ASK 15 PER CENT

The PNE has asked 15 per cent of the gross gate after taxes are deducted. That, say the reports, would work out to more than $40,000 and it's too steep.

Duncan A Lawyer

CALGARY (CP)—Calgary Stampede's top kicker was admitted to the Alberta Bar Wednesday by Mr. Justice J. M. Cairns. Edward David (Ted) Duncan was presented to the court by A. M. Harradence, with whom he articulated. Duncan, now in his second season with the Stampede, played previously with British Columbia Lions.

Gambling Crackdown

ROME (Reuters)—Italian professional soccer players and other sportsmen who accept bribes from rival teams will be liable to three months to a year in prison if a draft law submitted to parliament Tuesday is approved. The law says down the same penalty for the person who pays the bribe.

New York Debut

NEW YORK (AP)—Pat McMurry of Tacoma and George Chuvala of Toronto, newly crowned Canadian heavyweight champion, were matched Wednesday for a 10-round heavy-weight bout at Madison Square Garden, Friday, Oct. 17. It will be the first New York appearance of both boxers.

This Prince Turned Out To Be a Shining Knight

By HAL MALONE

A four-legged menace named Prince Denis Wednesday caused mixed reactions among the patrons at Sidney's Sandown waging ring.

To those few who chose to risk capital on him because he is pretty, has four legs and (ostensibly) a motor; he was a knight in shining armor. He should have been. Unsuccessful in six excursions this year, the Prince trotted home in front for a $51.90 return.

To many more who saw Prince Denis as the fourth horse from the left in Victoria's Tally-Ho, the gelding's success was like being kicked in the stomach. By a horse.

WHAT DID HE DO?

No horse should be overlooked but bettors had a reason for holding their noses when looking at the Prince's report card. In his last start he came home with the night watchman at odds of 149-1. Before that he had done everything expected of an animal ready to be shipped to the glue works... finished last, eighth, sixth and fifth.

His photo-finish triumph ought to have had an adverse effect on the day's mutual play. It didn't. Instead, punters pushed their fingers deep into their pockets and shovelled their dollars into the sellers until their sticky fingers.

When it was all over, track mathematicians discovered $50,938 had gone through the betting windows, an increase of $3,868 or about 11 per cent more than the same day last year.

Most of the spending was fresh money. It had to be, because only one favorite—Keats Island—scored. Other choices collapsed like Hollywood marriages. Sundorn Sue was one of them.

STARTED POORLY

Conceding, perhaps, a winning by as wide a margin as she chose, the 35 choice had the ground break under her when the gate opened. This delayed her departure appreciably. She took off in hot pursuit but went wide on the first turn. Halfway down the backstretch she had used up all her energy and began to look for a filling station. Her performance resulted in a mass ticket-tearing ceremony throughout the grandstand.

Not a favorite on the board, but a pet of patrons, the three-year-old Miss Keith took the bit in her mouth (without swallowing it) and ran off with the feature race.

Only slightly larger than a Shetland pony, Miss Keith nevertheless "picked them up and laid them down" with sufficient rapidity to choke the popular Our Butch and Delare. Charley Chiappa, as pleasant and capable a horseman as you could meet, trains her. Under his care, Miss Keith has won four of her eight starts, has a second and a third. Her earnings exceed $2,600.

Charley (Banana-pose) Ulrich led the riders with two winners... His ability to keep a front-runner going was reflected in his handling of Smoggy and Miss Keith... The former stake horse Pamareo, dropped

$50,000 Bonus Melon For Prairie Horsemen

EDMONTON (CP)—For the first time in Western Canadian racing history, the minimum purses at Edmonton, Calgary, Saskatoon and Regina race meets have exceeded $1,000.

This was brought out Wednesday by Lou Davies, general manager of the Western Canada Racing Association, who said the association will distribute $50,000 in bonus money to owners whose horses have finished in the money during the current season.

The $50,000 resulted from a hold-back policy by the track operators, endorsed by the horsemen, to protect themselves from overpaying in purses.

The agreement between the tracks and the horsemen specifies that 57½ per cent of the track's nine-per-cent share of the mutual play is earmarked for purse money.

With approval of the horsemen, the racing association set a purse schedule on a conservative basis, so the owners could expect some bonuses at the season's end if the year had been fairly normal. At the same time, the operators were protected from a disastrous year.

Carlings Earn Playoff Berth

VANCOUVER (CP)—Carlings came from behind to win the Pacific Coast Soccer League second half title here Wednesday night with a 2-1 win over Hungarians.

Goal scorers for Hungarians were Mike Kuczi, Len Fabri with two and Ed Schmidt. Roy Nosella scored three goals for Carlings. Jim Wilson and Jack Hobbs got the other two goals for the winners.

Carlings' win gave them a two-point edge on second-place New Westminster Royals. Hungarians finished third. Carlings now play Halcors, first half winners, here in the league play-offs on Sept. 27.

ISLAND TITLE GOES ON LINE

Jalopies' Turn Saturday

Those ever-lovin' 'jalopies have their turn Saturday night.

The newest division of racing cars at Western Speedway, introduced at the start of the season in an attempt to produce new faces and new cars for the benefit of Vancouver Island fans, takes the limelight by staging their first Island championship race.

A field of more than 20 cars is expected to start in the 25-lap main event.

The jalopies, who have taken a back seat to stockers and big cars throughout the season, will also stage added heat races. Stock cars will stage their regular main event

Eastern Squad Changes Goalies For Fourth Game

"All we need is a few fast goals to get started."

That was the observation of Peewee Bradshaw, who takes his tattered Junior Shamrocks into Memorial Arena tonight in a last-ditch struggle to prolong the best-of-seven Minto Cup junior lacrosse series against Brampton Excelsiors.

Excelsiors have won three straight games, and need only to win tonight to take the silverware back east with them.

But Bradshaw still feels that, despite Excelsiors' present tremendous advantage, his team can win the series.

BOYS BELIEVE HIM

"If we can win this game, I say we can take it all," he stated. "More important, the boys think so, too!"

"Our passing has been terrible, and when we did get a pass in, our shooting was bad. If we score a couple of times, and the boys get in their stride, I don't think they can stop us."

Bradshaw will stick with the Shamrocks' usual fast-breaking style of play, although it let them down miserably in other games. He also plans no change in the Irish lineup.

Bob McKee, Jack Wilson and Jack Showers will play on the first line, and the new second line will be made up of Jack Phillips of Vancouver, Jim McNeill and Tom Wyatt. Stu Smith, Bob Bateman and Dave Torg of New Westminster make up the third line.

Phil Willis and Fred Malt team up on one defensive unit, with Tom English and Russ West on the other. Don Hamilton will be in goal.

George Thompson, Brampton coach, announced one change in his lineup. That will be in goal, where Bob Savage will be replaced by Pat Baker. The two netminders have played alternate games all season.

Game time is 8:30.

Registration Period For City Youngsters

Boys 8 to 13 years old interested in playing soccer are asked to register with the Lower Island Junior and Juvenile League Saturday at eight parks.

Registration, between 10 and 11 a.m., will take place at Windsor, Bullen, Lansdowne, Central, Reynolds, Hampton, Heywood and Langford Parks.

Boys of 8 and 9 will first have a period of coaching, to be followed by inter-park games, until December.

Boys between 10 and 13 will be formed into teams and play league games until Easter.

Arrangements will be made to buy and sell soccer boots that have become too small.

All boys will be insured against accidents.

Len Isaacson, president of the league, has issued a call for more coaching assistance. Any-one interested is asked to call him at 5-2506.

EVEN MR. ELLIOTT MUST MOVE SLOWLY AT TIMES

MELBOURNE (AP)—Australia's miracle runner Herb Elliott did his slowest mile today—13 minutes, 15.7 seconds.

He was riding through the streets of Melbourne where people gave him a hero's welcome.

Elliott, who this year has run a mile under four minutes 10 times and has established a world record time of 3:54.5, is here to talk about his future with his employers, a chemical company.

The chemical company, it was learned, will offer Elliott a university scholarship in commerce—with full pay—if he agrees to stay an amateur, running for Australia.

Injuries May Hurt Oak Bay's Chances

Oak Bay Drakes have been called the powerhouse of the Victoria Intermediate Football League.

But the powerhouse may be short-circuited due to injuries when Drakes meet Mayo Vampires at Royal Athletic Park Friday.

Coach Jack Patrick will have only two first-string players on the field when the game begins at 8:30—guard Ivor Jenkins and end Pete Turko.

Patrick, bothered by an injured shoulder suffered in last week's game with Seattle Ramblers, will be replaced as starting quarterback by ex-Vampire Wayne Henderson.

George Wilson, Pat Cornell, Turko and Ron Jay will line up in the backfield with Henderson.

Drakes also announced the signing of Rick McVie, who also started this season with the Maymen. He will play guard.

'JUST NORMAL BOYS'

Players' Brawl Denied by Casey

DETROIT (AP)—Casey Stengel says his New York Yankees are just normal, healthy, red-blooded, playful American boys. They do not fight among themselves, he says, and there have been no fights between players and coaches. The whole squad, says Stengel, is saving its strength for Milwaukee Braves and the world series. The New York Post said Wednesday that coach Ralph Houk and relief ace Ryne Duren "engaged in a bloody battle" during the Yankees' victory party Sunday night. Houk denied it, too, and Duren was in Wisconsin attending his grandfather's funeral. Other Yankee players said it was just horseplay and some writers covering the club said there was no exchange of punches. The Post said the fight took place on a train carrying the club from Kansas City, where the Yankees clinched another pennant Sunday, to Detroit. "By agreement the sports-writers travelling with the team kept it secret," said The Post. "Today it leaked out."

Captain 'Corny' Back on the Beach

NEWPORT, R.I. (UPI)—Cornelius Shields, the sea-wise yacht-racing veteran who skippered the Columbia to victory in the America's Cup trials, will be on the sidelines during the cup races. Harry Sears, head of the syndicate which built Columbia, said he intended to keep Briggs Cunningham at the helm in the match races with the British challenger Sceptre which begin Saturday. Shields, who suffers from a heart condition, was ordered to the sidelines by his physician just before the final race against the Vim last week. Sears said afterwards that he "needed Corny" and would make every effort to get him back on the ship by race time. However, his efforts apparently were fruitless. He said Wednesday night that the crew would remain the same for the races against Sceptre. Meanwhile, workmen at the Newport shipyard repaired

Pennant-Bound Braves Find Cards Still Tough

By UP International
Smilin' Stan Hack is only minding the store for the St. Louis Cardinals but he aims to show a profit just the same.

Announced as the interim manager when Fred Hutchinson was fired Wednesday, Hack made a successful debut in a 5-3 victory over Milwaukee Braves. Hack's objective is to make up a 2½-game deficit and beat out Cincinnati Redlegs for fourth place.

The loss cut the Braves' first-place margin over idle Pittsburgh to 5½ games but their magic clinching number is still only three. The Braves can cut it to two when they play the Cardinals again tonight and then could clinch on Friday night.

BANKS BELTS 47TH

Ernie Banks hit his 47th homer to lead Chicago Cubs to a seven-inning, 6-2 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies in the only other National League game. Detroit Tigers beat the New York Yankees, 5-2, and Boston Red Sox topped the Kansas City Athletics, 4-2, after a 6-3 defeat in the only American League activity.

Rookie Gene Green knocked in two runs with a homer and a triple as the Cardinals kayaked 20-game winner Warren Spahn in six innings and handed the Milwaukee southpaw ace his 11th setback. Green's fourth-inning homer gave the Cardinals a 3-2 lead and they added another pair in the sixth on Green's triple and singles by Ken Boyer and Eddie Kasko.

Banks hit a two-run homer high over the left field roof at Connie Mack Stadium, Philadelphia, and rookie right-hander Bob Anderson limited the Phillies to five hits for his third win. Richie Ashburn was hitless in two tries in the rain-shortened game and his league-leading average dipped to .342.

CLEAR ROOF

Mickey Mantle hit his 41st homer, a tremendous blast that cleared the right field roof at Detroit and was estimated at 500 feet, but Jim Bunning held the Yankees to only six other singles for his 13th triumph. Reno Bertola knocked in three runs with two homers as the Tigers dealt 21-game winner Bob Turley his seventh loss and took the season series, 12-10.

Mantle is the first player to hit a ball over the right field roof at Briggs Stadium since Ted Williams did it in 1939. Bill Renna, subbing for Williams, hit a two-run homer, and Don Buddin and Frank Malzone also homered for the Red Sox, who broke an eight-game losing streak in the nightcap. Rookie Bill Monbouquette limited the Athletics to six hits. The Athletics won the opener on a grand slam homer by catcher Harry Chiti.

MONTREAL (CP)—Montreal Alouettes of the Big Four announced acquisition of Ken Jackson, a two-way tackle cut by Baltimore Colts of the National Football League.

Spokane Simon-Pures Still Keep on Trying

SPOKANE (AP)—Proponents of senior amateur hockey here Wednesday night went right ahead with plans to field a team this year despite the fact that their future is pending on a decision by the state supreme court.

Clarence Tubbs, president of the amateurs, confirmed that the club has ordered uniforms, equipment and tickets and even picked a name for a team, the Jets.

The City of Spokane has filed an appeal calling for rejection of a superior court ruling that the city grant the amateurs playing time in Spokane Coliseum.

The city maintains that both the senior amateurs and the Spokane Flyers, a new entry

RECORD FEE PAID OUT FOR SHEFFIELD FORWARD

LONDON (AP)—Manchester United today paid about £40,000 for Sheffield Wednesday forward Albert Quizzall—a record British transfer fee. The previous highest transfer fees in British soccer were the £35,000 paid for Albert Sewel in 1951 and Cliff Jones earlier this year. Sewell was transferred from Notts County to Sheffield Wednesday, and Jones from Swansea to Tottenham Hotspur.

Hutchinson Out, But Not for Long

ST. LOUIS (AP)—St. Louis Cardinals fired manager Fred Hutchinson Wednesday but won't name his successor until the end of the season.

The replacement undoubtedly will be former Cardinal Solly Hemus, known to be the favorite of owner August A. Busch.

With Hutchinson went his three coaches, Stan Hack, Terry Moore and Al Hollinsworth. Hack agreed to manage the Redbirds until the end of the season. Then he's on his way out of the Cardinal organization, as is Moore. Hollinsworth might be offered another job in the system.

The only stumbling block in the way of Hemus being the fourth St. Louis manager in five years appeared to be terms the Philadelphia Phils might want for him. At second base for the Phils, he has been one of the few live wires on that team.

Eddie Stanky, now a coach with Cleveland Indians, will be with the Cardinals next year. He'll act as a "baseball brain," with a final say on trades, bonus players and rookies.

Favored for a pitching coach is Eddie Lopat. Next in line is Sal Maglie. The Cardinals would have to obtain a release of Lopat from New York Yankees, whose Richmond International League farm he manages. Hutchinson won't be out of a

Inflation Trend Key to Investors

By HAL MALONE
Times Business Editor

"Should I hold on to my money and hope the purchasing power of the dollar won't decrease or should I invest in stocks and seek a possible gain?"

How many times has this question puzzled potential investors, been tossed to brokers and been discussed over pots of tea or other snake-bite remedies?

No one can forecast the trend of inflation, a key to the matter. But a Boston, Mass., investment firm has made a revealing study of the value of the purchasing power of the dollar for various time periods.

The study encompasses periods from one year to 30 years and covering almost every conceivable kind of economic condition.

Their findings:

As the length of the periods increase, the chance of loss in the purchasing power of the dollar becomes greater. But, contrarily, the chance for gain in stocks becomes even greater.

For instance in the one-year periods, 87 of which were analyzed, the chances of gain and loss for both are about even. Studies show stocks have a 58 per cent chance of gain; there is a 54 per cent chance the investor will experience a loss if he holds dollars.

In comparison, studies of 38 periods of 30-year holdings showed there is a 91 per cent chance the investor will experience a loss if he holds dollars but a 100 per cent chance he will gain if he has stocks.

Not all stocks give a good account of themselves as a measure of protection against their dividends or have had little or no principal value increase are as useless to the investor as the race horse which runs out of ethyl in the stretch or the fighter who trains on pastry and schnapps.

Selective buying and constant watching are necessary to compensate for the inevitable mistakes an investor makes when he elects to wet his feet in the stock market. Plus, of course, a prayer that the market does not act like a new bride's first cake.

Ronson Products of Canada Ltd. has won an out-of-court settlement against the Belgo Canadian Manufacturing Co., Importers and distributors of Japanese lighters.

Ronson claimed an infringement of rights and unfair competitive practices arising from the importation of the lighters which Ronson alleged were slavish imitations of its lighters. Belgo is prohibited, under terms of settlement, from the future manufacture, importation or sale of lighters which are substantially identical to those complained of in the Ronson suit.

Plywood Manufacturers Association of B.C. has won one of North America's most coveted safety awards. The association, representing all Canadian ply wood makers, will be presented with the National Safety Council's Association Safety Award at the National Safety congress next month in Chicago.

W. M. "Scotty" Allison, senior safety director of the association, will receive the award, one of less than a dozen earned in 1957 by more than 600 associations across the nation. B.C. mills reduced the frequency of occupational accidents 40.98 per cent during the past five years and 19.26 per cent last year. Average reduction for all industries was 16 per cent in the last five years.

P. S. Watt, of Ross, Touche and Co., is the lone Victoria chartered accountant attending the 56th annual conference of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants at Montreal.

An 18-year-old Port Coultim boy has won a $2,000 Imperial Oil scholarship. Frederick McCourt was one of 11 young Canadians selected. Awards were made for scholastic standing, character and special aptitude. The B.C. winner plans a four-year arts course at UBC. With each scholarship an additional $500 is granted to the university the winner attends.

SELECTIVE BUYING AND CONSTANT WATCHING ARE NECESSARY TO COMPENSATE FOR THE INEVITABLE MISTAKES AN INVESTOR MAKES WHEN HE ELECTS TO WET HIS FEET IN THE STOCK MARKET.

MARKET SUMMARIES

With industrials showing a strong index gain in moderate mid-afternoon trading the Toronto stock market was firm today.

Industrial gains ranged to 3 1/2 points but the bigger changes were confined to stocks with only one or two transactions reported. Sick's Brewery and Calgary Power each lost at least a point.

The New York market was off slightly on average but rails and assorted issues advanced in fairly active trading. Most of the motors were ahead slightly following the Ford labor settlement.

AT TORONTO senior base metals were easier, led by international Nickel's 1/2 point loss at 84. Other seniors had smaller declines. Uranium and copper were mixed to lower. Speculative mines moved in a narrow range and trading was lighter than usual on these issues.

AT NEW YORK Canadian Pacific followed the rails, gaining 1/2. Aluminum Ltd. lost 1/2 and International Nickel 1/2 among Canadian non-ferrous metals. Distillers - Seagrams added 1/2.

AT VANCOUVER the market was fairly active with little change in prices. New Hamill sold 15,000 at 45. Bethlehem River Pette traded 12,000 at 64. and Boyle Brothers "A" sold Copper sold 10,000 at 100. Peace 1,000 at 900.

Two Leading Breweries Talk Merger

MONTREAL (GP) — Senator Hartland Molson, president of Molson's Brewery Ltd., said today discussions have taken place between his company and Sick's Breweries of Calgary "with regard to a possible association."

In a prepared statement he said discussions are continuing, but it would be "idle to speculate at this time" on the final outcome.

Senator Molson was commenting on a Vancouver report which said the companies planned to merge in "the fourth big deal in the brewery business in British Columbia."

Sick's is a holding company with subsidiaries in the brewing and soft drink business. It owns breweries in Vancouver, Lethbridge, Edmonton, Regina, and Prince Albert, Sask.

Emil Slick of Seattle, chairman of the company's board, said Wednesday the merger is "still in the speculative stage" and it would not be proper for him to comment.

Only One Form of Discipline in Forest Camps

This is the second of two articles by Norman Cribbens, Times staff reporter, after a visit to B.C.'s forest jail camps on the mainland. The idea of the camp, originated in the report of a penal commission set up in 1955 under the chairmanship of the late Col. Eric Pepler, then deputy attorney-general. The first of these camps was built three years ago.

By NORMAN CRIBBENS

There are no bars or fences at B.C.'s Forest jail camps—not so much as a lock on the bunkhouse doors. The men have only one thing to fear, and it is the only discipline: They can, if they misbehave, be sent back to Oakalla jail.

"So far," says Toby Tobiasson, senior correctional officer for the two camps in the Chilliwack area, "only three out of the 2,000-odd who have passed through our hands have tried to escape. And only about one-half of one per cent have been sent back to Oakalla for breaking the rules."

"In one of the cabins, a while ago one of the boys made some hooch—a crudely fermented wine from local fruit. The others in his cabin knew they would be sent back to Oakalla if the stuff were discovered. So they heaved it into the river and punched up the man who made it."

Prison Justice

"This is rough justice, but it works. If you tell the men in a cabin they will all be kicked out of the camp if any one of them breaks the rules they will make darn sure no one does break them."

Toby is the type of man you would choose as God-father for your first-born. His ingenious open countenance is friendly and reassuring. It seems to say:

"You and I know how wicked the world is and how easy it is for us to get into trouble."

His assistant, Ernest Noel, also has a kindly viewpoint.

"For every man who gets sent to the pen, there are plenty of others who get away with it. The boys who come here know we are on their side. We want them to finish their sentence and get their discharge."

"That's why I like it here. There is a feeling of hope and optimism—a forward look you don't get at Oakalla."

There are 28 correctional officers in the two camps—and the number seems high considering there are only 121 men in all. They work four days on and two off, as at Oakalla, and some live as far away as Vancouver.

Liquor, of course, is banned from the camps, and officers who feel thirsty must wait till they get home before they indulge.

Smokes Available

The prisoners can spend part of their 75-cents-a-day wage on tobacco and candy and order their supplies once a week through the camp supply store.

"One of them told me he would cheerfully give up his 75 cents a day rather than go back to Oakalla," chief officer H. Miles-Pickup said. "They really like it here."

Up at Camp No. 2, which I visited this afternoon, the men have built a first-class motor repair shop at a cost of $4,000. I am told this would have been a $35,000 job if it had been done by outside labor.

They have also constructed an ornamental garden, with a totem pole as its centerpiece, and in the woodwork shop have carpentered many household refinements, such as coffee tables and chairs.

"There are always good craftsmen among the hundreds who come to this camp," said Walter Wilson, senior guard at Camp No. 2. "Just recently we had an elderly man who grew up in Norway and learned carpentering from his father."

Skill Recovered

"He said he had rarely used his craft since coming to Canada 30 years ago, but had recovered his enthusiasm in our workshop."

Occasionally, clerical workers of good behavior are sent to the forestry camps and they, too, fit into the general scheme, being assigned to letter-writing and accounting in what is called the "paper-work mill."

"The wages aren't much but the scenery's good," commented a grey-haired clerk. "I've worked in one or two big cities in my time and I figure that, what with the worry and the tension, I'm just as well off here."

"What you miss most, of course, is the freedom to do what you like when you've finished work."

Out in the middle of the river I watched a man fishing. They told me he was the camp cook and that he started work so early that he earned time off in the afternoon.

Like many of these jail camp workers he is a keen fisherman. One of them caught a big steelhead last week and proudly turned it over to the cookhouse.

"You can't hoard anything here," one of the prisoners said. "There would be no point in it. What we get we share and that's the way it should be."

E. G. B. Stevens, Director of Correction, believes these forestry camps will play a big part in the future of prison rehabilitation in B.C.

"They are better all round for the men; they cost the taxpayer much less to build—and out of it all comes constructive work to help develop British Columbia."

Requiem Mass Sung for 65-Year Victoria Resident

Requiem mass was sung Tuesday at the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes for Andrew McIntyre Mulcahy, 73, 228 Obed, who died Saturday in Veterans' Hospital.

Mr. Mulcahy, second son of the late Major and Mrs. A. Mulcahy, had lived in Victoria for more than 65 years. He was a brother of Patrick Mulcahy, B.C.'s deputy minister of mines.

As a young man he was keenly interested in sports and played senior lacrosse here early in the century.

After a few years with the Dominion hydrographic survey, Mr. Mulcahy joined the B.C. Salvage Co. as an engineer aboard the famous tug Salvor. He took part in more than 100 salvage operations, and was believed to have been the last surviving member of Salvor's crew.

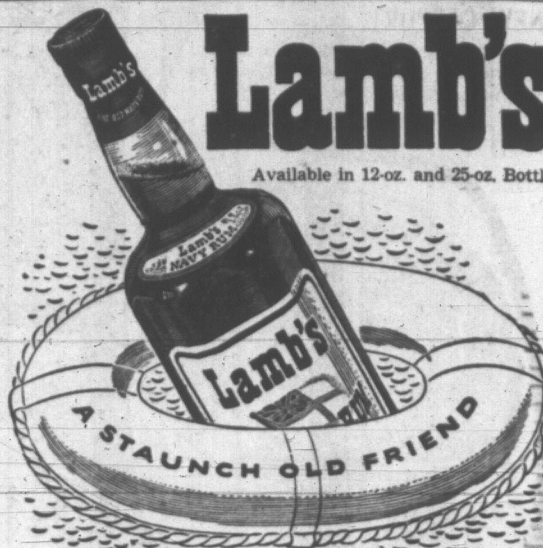

During the First World War he served overseas with the Third Battery, Canadian Field Artillery. Following the war he was with the Pacific Salvage Co. until his retirement in 1956.

CAPACITY 15 PINTS; TWO UNDER BEATS RAP

GATESHEAD, Eng. (Reuters) — James Scott told magistrates here Wednesday he had drunk 13 pints of beer while in charge of a mechanical road-sweeper, but claimed "it would take 15 to put me under the influence." A police sergeant agreed Scott was "certainly used to taking it."

The sergeant added, "he caused no trouble and behaved himself in the station."

The magistrates dismissed a charge that Scott was drunk in charge of his vehicle.

... HERE AND THERE ...

With NORMAN CRIBBENS

Proud man these days is Dick Colby of the film branch of the B.C. government's recreation department.

His 20-minute documentary "Tight Lines" has been described by the National Film Board of Canada as "the finest fishing film we have ever seen."

The board has ordered 25 prints of Dick's movie for world distribution—and it will also be circulated throughout Canada.

Those who complain there is no night life in Victoria may care to consult the section marked "Night Clubs" in the yellow pages of the new Victoria telephone directory.

Five night clubs are listed—The C.A.C. Garden Restaurant, Club Sirocco, Club Tango, Hop Shi Chop Suey and Progressive Artists.

Who says Victoria is dull?

Directors of Victoria Art Gallery met one evening last week to plan the opening of the new $75,000 fireproof wing, which took place Saturday morning.

One of them posed a problem.

"The ceremonies will finish around 11:45 a.m.," he said, "but the luncheon isn't until 12:45 p.m. What will we do with the guests while they are waiting for lunch?"

The directors pondered the problem in silence. Then Tony Emery came up with a bright idea.

"If the worst comes to the worst," he said, "they could kill time looking at the pictures in the gallery."

A friend of mine tempted fate Wednesday night by parking his car in the space marked "Reserved for the Lieutenant-Governor" at the side door of the Empress while he skipped across the road to the pop shop.

He was back in three minutes for a quick get-away, but before he could start the engine a party of sailors strolling by shouted:

"Hello there, gov!"

When CCF leader M. J. Coldwell returned from a recent visit to his native England, he was interviewed by a Canadian immigration officer who had never heard of him.

"The officer asked me where I was born and how long I had lived in Canada," Mr. Coldwell said. "I told him I had lived here 49 years and had a Canadian passport. So it didn't matter where I was born."

DEPUTY MINISTER of education for New Brunswick, Dr. F. E. MacDermid, 59, today was scheduled to be installed as the new president of the Canadian Education Association in convention here at the Empress Hotel. Born in Chatham, N.B., he graduated from the University of New Brunswick and in 1954 obtained his doctor of education degree. He has been deputy minister since 1949.

Annual Socred Meet Oct. 31

Annual convention of the B.C. Social Credit Party will be held at Vancouver Oct. 31 and Nov. 1.

About 500 delegates are expected to attend from all parts of the province.

Opening day main speaker will be Alberta premier E. C. Manning. Solon Low, former house leader of the party at Ottawa, also will be present.

Esquimalt Fleet to Join U.S. in Big 'Sub-Hunt'

One of the largest joint exercises ever undertaken by the United States and Canadian navies will take place off the West Coast of Vancouver Island Monday to Thursday next week.

Eleven ships of the RCN Pacific Command, an undisclosed number of U.S. naval and navy air force units, and aircraft from RCAF Squadron 407, Comox, will participate.

The exercises are part of the increasing program of anti-submarine warfare (ASW) now under way.

Location will be a wide area of open Pacific, to the West of Cape Flattery.

The Canadian ships will comprise the full Second Canadian Escort Squadron of six destroyer escorts, and all but one of the six frigates of the Fourth Canadian Escort Squadron.

Senior officer of the Second

Squadron is Capt. J. C. Pratt, who is also commanding officer of HMCS Crescent. Senior officer of the Fourth is Capt. H. A. Porter.

Other ships taking part, and their commanding officers, are: destroyer escorts Cayuga (Cmdr. M. H. E. Page), Athabaskan (Cmdr. D. S. Boyle), Skeena (Cmdr. W. M. Kidd), Fraser (Cmdr. Raymond Phillips), and Margaree (Cmdr. Jack Korning). Frigates Stettler (Lt.-Cmdr. M.

H. Cooke), Antigonish (Lt.-Cmdr. R. W. J. Cocks), New Waterford (Lt.-Cmdr. W. S. T. Blandy), New Glasgow (Lt.-Cmdr. A. R. Pickels) and Jonquiere (Lt.-Cmdr. E. V. P. Sunderland).

The Second squadron is now at sea, exercising in Canadian waters. Both squadrons will proceed to Seattle Saturday for general conferences and briefing on the forthcoming exercises.

The Esquimalt-based ships will return Sept. 26.

New Record Registration At College

Registration at Victoria College stands at a new high of 771 and will reach 850 by Monday, when classes start, according to Prof. R. T. Wallace, vice-principal.

"It will be about 150 higher than that of last year," he said. An indication of the size of the student body was the overflow crowd that attended the annual freshman assembly today in the auditorium.

Students filled every available space in the room, and overflowed into the hall, to hear addresses of welcome by Judge J. B. Clearhue, president of Victoria College Council; Dr. Harry Hickman, principal; and Ron Cook, students' council president.

ALL SPACE NEEDED

The big student body will strain all classrooms, laboratories, and other facilities "to the limit," Prof. Wallace said.

New space is being prepared, he said, but it will not be fully in use before Christmas.

Of the registrations in hand Wednesday night, 423 were for students in arts and science, and 348 in education.

New staff have been added in the English, French, and physics department to make a total of 46.

FOUNDER of English Speaking Union, Sir Evelyn Wrench, CMG, LL.D., will speak to meeting of Overseas League and Victoria branch of union Sept. 27 at 7 p.m. at Holyrood House. A former newspaperman, he recognized need for organization to improve relations between Great Britain and United States, and formed union in 1918 to become first president.

Sudden Death at 42 Stuns Legal Circles

Victoria and mainland citizens were stunned today by the sudden death of Hugh Esterbrook, 42, leading Victoria lawyer and prominent member of the Victoria Liberal Association.

Mr. Esterbrook, age 42, collapsed and died at the breakfast table this morning at his home at 333 Transit Road. His wife and three children—Jennifer, John and Robert—were with him at the time.

He is believed to have died from a heart seizure.

Many of his friends and colleagues met him as late as Wednesday evening and said he seemed in good health and spirits.

"I am so shaken I hardly know what to say," said Arthur Cox, secretary of Victoria Liberal Association. "Hugh was a most promising man—a sound lawyer and a fine Liberal."

"He had hoped to run as Victoria candidate in the next provincial general election and he is undoubtedly a great loss to our cause."

"I feel the greatest sympathy for his wife and children. It will be a terrible blow to them."

'GREAT LOSS'

Victoria lawyers generally spoke highly of Mr. Esterbrook as lawyer, citizen and a leader of good causes.

"His death is a great loss both to the legal profession and the Liberal Party," said Victoria MLA George Gregory. "I am really shattered to hear of his passing."

Born in Winnipeg, Mr. Esterbrook served with the RCAF in the United Kingdom and Ceylon during the Second World War. He was a member of the first post-war class to graduate at the University of British Columbia.

After graduation he was articled to the legal firm of Bourne, DesBrisay and Bourne in Vancouver and then became a partner in the Victoria firm of Crease & Co.

At the time of his death he was defending Mrs. Alice Louella Kerr, 54, who is charged with the murder of her husband Alfred, at North Pender Island Aug. 10.

He was to have appeared at the opening of the preliminary hearing in Victoria RCMP court today.

HEADED LIBERAL GROUP

Mr. Esterbrook was a former president of the John Howard Society in Victoria, the Victoria branch of the Laurier Club, and the Oak Bay Liberal Association. He was also a member of the Union Club and the Royal Victoria Yacht Club, and served on the central executive of Victoria Liberal Association.

After elementary schooling in Winnipeg, he attended Ridley College, St. Catharines, Ont., before joining the RCAF.

Besides the wife and children, survivors include two brothers—Dr. Harry Esterbrook of Toronto and Jack Esterbrook of Oakville, Ont.—and one sister, Mrs. Jocelyn Staton of Atlanta, Georgia.

Funeral arrangements are in the hands of Hayward's Ltd. and will be announced later.

Lawyer's Death Delays Hearing Of Murder Suspect

Sudden death of defence counsel Hugh Esterbrook brought indefinite delay to a preliminary hearing for murder suspect Mrs. Alice Louella Kerr, 54, in Victoria RCMP court today.

The hearing was remanded to Friday at 10 a.m. to enable Mrs. Kerr, charged in the shooting of her husband Alfred, 56, on Aug. 10, to obtain new counsel.

It was expected a date would then be set, possibly next week, for the preliminary hearing to get under way.

Previous delay in the case was caused by a crown-requested remand when Mrs. Kerr appeared Aug. 25.

Mrs. Kerr was charged after her husband was found shot in their Hope Bay, Pender Island, home, early Aug. 11.

Delegates Named To CCF Meeting

CCF Esquimalt Constituency Association this week named seven delegates to a Vancouver Island Conference to be held Oct. 4 and 5 at Nanaimo. They are C. A. Beilhouse, W. Burchill, B. Johnson, S. Lawrence, F. Mitchell, E. Walters and J. Wilson. Alternates are H. Mitchell, D. McDermott, G. H. Mitchell. The conference will discuss political co-operation with trade unions. A series of area meetings have been held throughout British Columbia in recent weeks.

Esquimalt Home Hit By Early Morning Fire

A frightened collie and a half-full coffee cup were mute evidence of fire that claimed a life here Wednesday.

Mrs. Lucille Calder, about 53, was burned to death in her home at 448 Grafton, Esquimalt.

She was found slumped in a chair beside the kitchen table. On it stood the cup, sugar and cream, and two unopened letters addressed to her.

When firemen broke into the house they found the Calders' five-year-old collie "Missie" cowering in a corner. Soaked, terrified, but unhurt, she wouldn't leave and had to be driven out.

"I ran up the steps and flames struck me in the face," said James Dunn, 1404 Beatty, one of the first to sight the fire which started sometime between 5:30 and 6 p.m.

SLUMPED IN CHAIR

Next to brave the flames were Esquimalt constable Peter Dougherty and the dead woman's son-in-law Dennis Kempton, 701 Connaught, who entered the kitchen and dragged Mrs. Calder outside.

"I followed Pete in," said Mr. Kempton, "and we found her sitting on a chair slumped over the kitchen table."

Esquimalt police chief Gilbert Stancombe said he was satisfied the woman was dead when found.

The fire was first spotted by next-door neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. David Walker, 444 Grafton, who phoned police and fire departments before joining a crowd of spectators outside the burning home.

HUSBAND AT WORK

Mrs. Calder lived at the modern bungalow with her husband Herbert, "Buck" Calder, owner of a construction business, and they had one daughter, Carol married to Dennis Kempton.

Mr. Calder was at work when the fire broke out.

Many Victorians will remember "Buck" Calder for his 100-foot dives from a tower into the Gorge 35 years ago when the old tea gardens were in operation.

Mrs. Calder was pronounced dead-on-arrival at St. Joseph's Hospital and the body was moved to McCall Bros. Funeral Home.

The fire, thought to have possibly started in a large easy chair, was confined largely to the living room.

Varnished woodwork on the walls and ceiling were charred to a depth of half an inch.

TAPS FULL ON

When firemen gained entry both taps in the kitchen sink were "running full blast" and burns were seen on cupboards under the sink.

It was thought that the woman, her clothes aflame and burning from head to foot, attempted to soak herself in water.

The author, "Reg" Roy, served with the Cape Breton Highlanders, and at present is history instructor at the Canadian Services College, Royal Roads. Prior to his appointment he was in the provincial archives.

Hit-Run Victim Collapsed Before Crash

Got Up Again, Say Police

An elderly Chinese victim of a hit-run driver in Central Saanich Wednesday collapsed on his face minutes before he was involved in the fatal collision, Central Saanich police said today.

Chief Constable Fred Brownlee said Chin Yuk Chun, 70, of 1722 1/2 Government, had been picked up near Butler Bros. supply yard on Keating Cross Road and put on a truck running board about 100-200 yards from where he was found after the collision.

It had been the man's habit to take long walks along Saanich Peninsula highways and byways and he had often been taken home by police.

Police are "positive" a black or dark-colored English car had nothing to do with the fatality, but request the driver to come forward with information.

The car sought is one of four which passed near where Chin was found on the roadside shortly after 8 p.m.

He was pronounced dead on arrival at Rest Haven Hospital, Sidney.

Chief Brownlee said J. W. Nelson of Brentwood had seen Chin collapse and fall on his face on the hard surface at about 7:55 p.m.

Mr. Nelson stopped his car and helped Chin to a Butler Bros. truck, where he left the man to recover from his fall while he went to fetch police.

He said that Chin told him he was all right.

While Const. F. W. Wenden was leaving his house to attend to Mr. Nelson's call, he received another call saying a pedestrian had been struck.

The chief said Chin evidently had got up and continued his walk east on Keating for about 100-200 yards before he was involved in the collision.

Investigation would be assisted if the point at which the pedestrian was last seen alive before the accident could be fixed by driver of the dark English car, the chief said.

An inquest is scheduled for Sept. 25 at 10 a.m. at Sands funeral home, but identification of the body will be Friday.

Well, that's another story. You figure it out.

ASK The TIMES

Q. I visited the museum at Signal Hill the other day. Were there naval officers living there 40 years ago? I seem to remember there were.

L.W.

A. Yes, and even longer ago than that. The red brick building which now houses the museum, and similar buildings nearby, served as married quarters for naval officers when the Royal Navy first began to build up a base at Esquimalt, about the turn of the century.

Neat Storage Means A Good, Clean Start

We're back to the sound of the old school bell, and teenagers everywhere are prepared for campus and fall with brand new school clothes.

It's time to store away for another year the bright cottons and delicate pastels of summer. And the teenager who wants them to look new and fresh when she next wears them will store them away neatly, carefully, and only after they have been thoroughly cleaned.

Next summer may seem a long way off, but you'll be mighty pleased when it rolls 'round and you can just take your clothes out and put them on, without having to get them into shape first. It's attention to small details that makes your clothes look smart as much as the money you spend on them.

Before you put away your light dresses, wash them, paying particular attention to the places most likely to get soiled. Use a small brush and soap or detergent suds on the hem, collar, waistband and sleeve edges before you immerse the entire garment. And if your blouses, skirts or dresses are drip-dry, finger-press them before you put them away in tightly-sealed garment bags.

Don't put your summer shoes away without cleaning them. A light touch of a sudsy sponge will remove any mud or grime. Use shoe trees, too, so that the shoes will hold their shape during their long winter's rest.

Brush off your summer hats and place them in boxes on the closet shelf. Next time you want them you won't have to plow around, handling every-item till you find the right one. Your summer gloves should be washed, and your handbags cleaned, before they are stored in plastic folders for next year's use.

Caring for your clothing in this fashion will give you a feeling of well-being. Neatness is the first rule of good grooming, and no one who isn't aware of cleanliness, small rips that need mending, or clothing that's hanging haphazardly on closet hangers can possibly look chic or smart when she goes out.

Garments that have been carefully mended, cleaned and stored will last a lot longer and look as good as new when they are returned to circulation.

The weeks and months pass quickly for active teenagers. And before you know it, the warm weather will be back again. One bright, sunny day, you'll decide you're ready to wear that pretty pink dress and all its accessories.

CONFIDENTIALLY YOURS

—by Byrne Hope Sanders

MONTREAL, Sept. 18th — Secrets of success are often, I find, so simple. I'm thinking now of one secret for helping to find energy for a testful day's work — a good breakfast. My mother taught us that secret — and served us RED RIVER CEREAL — the way I serve it to my family today. This delicious blending of cracked wheat, rye and flax, is really an ideal start for the day for youngsters or hard workers who need the energy value it brings... or for older folk and sedentary workers who find Red River guards regularly. Ready in a few minutes, and good for everyone! Let's move into autumn with good piping-hot Red River breakfasts!

I'M A REAL FAN for anything I can use in a lot of different ways... especially when it makes my cooking taste better! That's why I depend so much on BAKER'S CHOCOLATE CHIPS — those unusually delicious, deeply-rich bits of chocolate goodness. Baker's Chocolate Chips do magic things to cookies, cakes, desserts, and frosting — and do them more flavorfully than any other chocolate chips I know. Their unfading crunch, fresh quality is perfectly preserved by the exclusive foil package, which keeps the chips as fresh as the day they were made.

"WHAT'S FOR DESSERT?"... is the cry as your hungry brood comes roaring home from school. As a special treat, serve them one of the 7 scrumptious ROYAL INSTANT PUDDINGS. And remember, Royal is the instant pudding you can make with skim milk. Try it, and save on calories and money. For your family's extra delight make Chocolate Marshmallow Pudding.

Drill Team Forms Honor Guard After Fraser-Dovey Nuptials

Victoria Girls' Drill Team formed a guard of honor outside Centennial United Church recently, following the marriage of one of their members, Miss Darlain Jean Dovey. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dovey of Fernwood Road and her groom, Gordon Hugh Fraser of HMCS Ontario, is son of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Crosskill of San Carlos, Calif.

Rev. A. Calder officiated at the evening ceremony.

Entering the church on the arm of her father, the bride was radiant in her floor length gown of white taffeta. The classic dress was fashioned with a sabrina neckline trimmed with iridescent paillettes, and lily point sleeves.

The wide skirt swept gracefully into a train. A crown of mother-of-pearl held her hand-rolled veil and she carried a bouquet of Johanna Hill roses and white heather.

A trio of attendants preceded the bride up the aisle. They included Miss Jeanie Burns, maid of honor; Misses Jacqueline Dovey and Valerie Rose, bridesmaids. All wore peach toned taffeta in ballerina length. Their hats were in matching tone and fabric and they carried bouquets of gladiolus. Little Debbie Hollier was flower girl. Her dress was in floor length taffeta in peach shade. She carried a colonial-bouquet of gladiolus and Johanna Hill roses.

Andrew Hudock was best man and ushers were Robert Korner, Melvyn Hendra and Maxwell Smith. Little Kirk Hollier was ring bearer.

At a reception in the Golden Slipper supper club, Allan Collier proposed the toast.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. D. Evanoff, the bride's grandmother, and Mr. and Mrs. George Brown of Wenatchee, Wash., and Mrs. B. Farrell of Vancouver.

For a honeymoon to California, the new Mrs. Fraser wore a beige fitted suit with pale blue hat and accessories. The couple will make their home in Victoria.

DEAR ABBY . . .

Slight Understatement

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am afraid I am a little slow about getting around to writing "thank you" notes. I have been married five months and I haven't sent the "thank you" notes for my bridal showers yet. I also have not written the "thank you's" for my wedding gifts. I am expecting a baby in four months. I know there will be some baby showers for me. Do you think it would be all right if I waited and thanked my friends for everything in one note? They are all the same people.

NO WRITER.

DEAR NO: Certainly not! Each gift deserves an individual "thank you." Get busy and write them!

DEAR ABBY: I am a girl of

17. My grandparents are invalids and very old. My parents expect me to stay here with them and not go anywhere. I know they have only a few short years to live but do you think I should give up the best years of my life, giving up parties and dates to take care of them?

OLD PEOPLE SITTER.

DEAR O.P.S.: Surely you are not expected to stay with your grandparents night and day? Someone else in the family can relieve you one or two evenings a week. In the meantime, be thankful that you are the one who is young and healthy and doing the "sitting" instead of "being sat" with.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: What would you do about a mother-in-law who walks in and out of your bedroom all hours of the night to look and see if the baby is all right? She doesn't think I am capable of watching. Don't tell us to move as we are living with her and we can't afford a place of our own just yet. Do I have to stand for this or not?

GOING CRAZY.

DEAR GOING: You do not! Have a lock put on your bedroom door.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: My son and his wife come to visit us every Sunday and they bring their two little children. These children act like they were raised in the wilds of Africa. They never speak, they shout. They turn the chairs over and play "rocking horse" and take the sofa cushions out and push them across the floor. They wipe their hands on the curtains and kick at the furniture with their shoes. If we say anything they say we think more of our furniture than we do of their children. How can we make them understand that we love the children but do not want our home in shambles?

GRANDMA.

DEAR GRANDMA: Don't blame your grandchildren because their parents failed to give them the proper training. If you value your furnishings, you and Pa had better go to visit your grandchildren at their home.

Shift Books to Balance Shoulders

Teen-agers who don't want to wind up with one shoulder higher than the other should learn now the effective trick of shifting books (or bundles) from one arm to the other. This distributes the weight evenly and also makes the toting less tiresome for you.

Right along with this, avoid the business of clutching books to your chest, lest you turn out round-shouldered. Many teen-agers make use of a lightweight case for carrying books. This is a good idea since it simplifies the whole thing, keeps the books together and makes it possible to shift the case from one hand to the other with ease.

These zippered cases come equipped with a carrying handle that makes the whole load seem a lot lighter.

This is the time of year when transition fashions are a girl's best friends: dark cottons, wool knits and dark silk prints. It's also the time to put life in the old wardrobe through accessories.

Trot out your new fall shoes and wear them. Discard summer's white cotton gloves and perk up your dark clothes with gloves in brilliant colors. Wear some of your new costume jewelry in deep and flashing colors. Put away your summer colognes and floral scents and get out those rich and sophisticated perfumes that suggest autumn.

All of these are ways to help you feel prettier and therefore to look prettier to others.

CAC Meeting

The Canadian Association of Consumers, Victoria Branch, will meet on Monday at 2 p.m. in the music room at Victoria Public Library. Speaker will be Miss Ethel Bruce and title of her subject, "A Twenty Minute Globe Trot." Guests may attend.

As nearly as anyone can figure out, there are about 40 million overweight people in this country today. That means a lot of extra poundage being carried around uselessly.

It also means poor health, bad figures, clothes problems and, quite likely, social problems arising from an unattractive appearance. For the truth is, almost any woman looks better when she sheds weight.

To do this, you need to cut calories. You don't need to starve yourself but you do need to discipline yourself. You do need to cut out between-meal snacks and you do need, until the extra weight is off, to be conscious of every single thing you eat. This means three carefully planned meals a day, no liquor, no candy, and a strong will marshaled to resist temptation.

But the effort pays off, remember, in a younger-looking, prettier, slimmer you who can wear the new fashions beautifully.

City 'Must' Drop Jaycee Rink Offer

A Junior Chamber of Commerce offer to give the city an ice rink must be considered withdrawn, Mayor Percy Scurrell said Wednesday.

The mayor said Stewart Hagar, Jaycee rink committee chairman, would not build a rink to turn over to the city unless there was a guarantee a Jaycee would sit on the civic arena commission.

"In that case, I guess there will be no rink," said the mayor. "We have no power to guarantee representation."

Arena commission members are elected by council. In order to guarantee representation of a service group, special legislation would have to be passed. "... and we cannot commit next year's council."

The mayor said the circumstance was "very unfortunate."

A Night on Town Among the Ghosts

By HUMPHRY DAVY

I was pretty tired after riding along that dusty trail from Nanaimo, so I thought I'd stop over at Ghost Town, a real smart place with a swanky bar and pretty gals.

The first thing I do is head for the bar to meet the boys before having a look around town.

Who do you think I meet there but my old friend Austin Curtis, the guy I did a little cattle punching with in the Kootenays back in '89.

Austin says to me, this set-up's all dolled up by the Gizeh Shrine Club.

Who are they? I ask.

Austin gives me a queer look as if I'm an ignoramus. They help the crippled children, he says. They build hospitals. They run the place.

So I mosey along to do the town. First thing I see is the town's new jail, just in case.

What a surprise I get. It's the queerest place I've seen. There is one guy in the lock-up looking pretty sorry for himself. And on the walls there are a lot of old guns, some going back to Christopher Columbus.

Then I go to see the new newspaper. I think it is old-fashioned. I don't say so, of course. This newspaper is not run by steam like the one in Toronto. One guy does all the work by hand.

I stop off at a gambling joint where four fellows are having a hand of cards. They point proudly to a "hurdy-gurdy," one of those machines that makes music. They tell me it was brought around the Horn from England. Fancy that.

In the store I see a queer invention. It's called a vacuum cleaner. I've never seen the like of it. It's made like a long cylinder and you pump it by hand like a water pump. The only difference, it sucks up dust.

But the queerest invention I see in Ghost town is called a movie projector. It shows pictures on a screen. They say it's the first of its kind.

But just then I meet the sheriff. His name is Bill Baddeley and he looks pretty tough. He carries two guns on his hips and I could see they were not there for nothin'.

You a new guy? he asks me. Well, see here. I runs this town. What I say goes. I built this place. Keep it clean.

I know it's tough, because in the square in the centre of town, I see three covered wagons. It looks as if they had a pretty tough time coming over the Rockies. There are arrows sticking out on the sides of the wagons.

They asked me to tell you all to drop in at the Curling Rink during the next two weeks. It's worth the ride. The Shrine Gizeh Club will be mighty happy.

GHOST TOWN—oldtimers congregate in saloon at Arena replica of old west layout. "Mortal" at rear is Sheriff Bill Baddeley, who set up the show. "Ghosts" are dummies of sailor and chorus girl.

Trustee Raps Spit and Polish Ottawa Policy

H. S. Hay, president of the Saskatchewan School Trustees Association, told educators in conference here Wednesday that Ottawa is spending too much money on "spit and polish and too little for building needed classrooms."

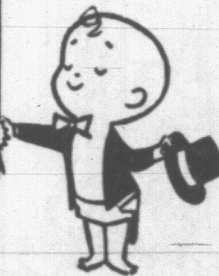

He stated that "if education is not worthy of the attention of the government, let's scrap the whole business."

The panel speaker was critical of DEW line costs, "obsolete before it was completed"; of aircraft, "obsolete before they take to the air"; and costs involved in the recent visit of Princess Margaret.

George Roberts, past president of the Canadian Teachers Federation, called the present conference "one big public relations project, plain and simple."

The year 1635 is recognized as the official start of the first colony in Connecticut, one of the New England states.

JUDGE BEGBIE HOLDS COURT

When Matthew Baillie Begbie was sent out as chief justice of British Columbia in 1858 he was the first British judge west of the Rockies and the only one. Fearless and honest, he journeyed with his string of horses from settlement to settlement hearing cases and making the rough miners respect British justice.

Some historians believe, therefore, that Sir Matthew Begbie played a most important part in holding the colony for Britain and later for Canada.

HE GIVES AWAY GRAND PRIZES

Is there something you want to know? Do you want to win a set of valuable books or other instructive prizes? Then ask Andy.

He is a deer, the grandest, and the most stately member of his clan. Full grown, the wapiti stag may weigh a thousand pounds and his magnificent crown of antlers may be five feet wide. Only one deer, the moose, is larger. And compared with the handsome wapiti, the moose is a clumsy oaf.

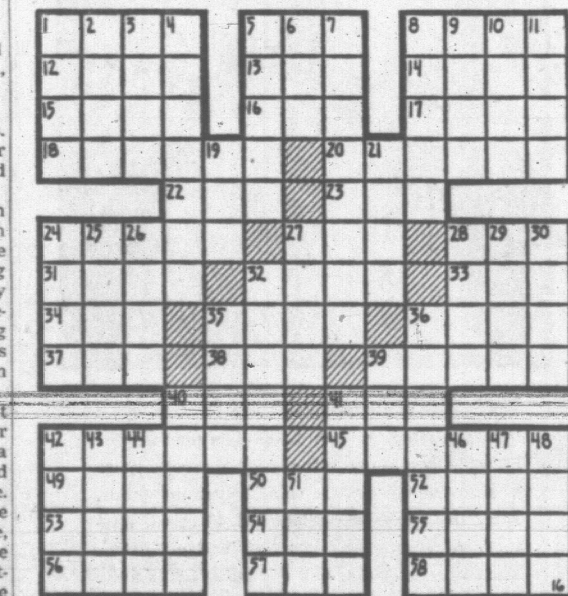

The lordly wapiti is no timid deer, feeding in the dim light and hiding in fear of his enemies. He leads his herd out to feed in the bright morning light and proudly guards them through the day. The princely fellow loves to fight and his pronged antlers can tear up a bear or even a puma.

Lose Antlers in Winter

The fighting season is over in December and Papa sheds his proud antlers. By this time Junior has lost his spots and grown himself a small pair of antlers. He gets a little sassy and he may prod the old stag who can no longer defend himself. Soon, Junior too sheds his baby antlers and the family set are covered with flesh and hair. By August the antlers are fully grown and the wrappings peel away.

The young wapiti stag is now ready for a family of his own. And the only way he can get one is to steal it from some old Papa stag. Time after time he challenges and fights just as he saw the young stags challenge his own Papa. At last he wins a fight. He defeats an old stag and proudly trots off with half a dozen wives of his own.

'Gimmicks' Minor Part Of Food Sales

TORONTO (CP)—The royal commission on price spreads, which ended four days of hearings in Toronto Wednesday, has adjourned until Oct. 14 before new hearings begin in Quebec City.

Dr. Stewart won't hazard a guess as to when the report will be completed but speculation has set the time at about mid-summer.

One of Canada's largest food chains Tuesday said the gimmick advertising plays only a minor role in the pushing of its food products.

Dominion Stores Limited told the commission that promotions such as contests, premiums and trading stamps have "attracted dominant attention" but represent "only a minor share of total advertising expenditures."

The Dominion Store brief said its main "communication with the consumer market" has been the "publicizing of available merchandise and prices, essential to the process of marketing and to informed consumption of food."

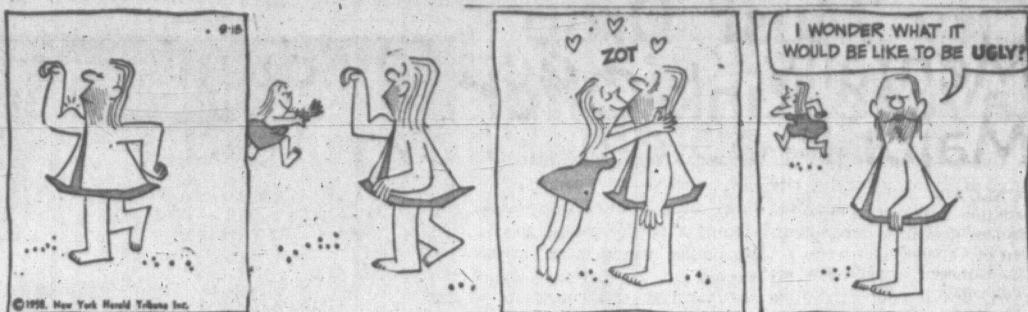

SEEK EFFICIENCY

"In addition there have been various forms of ancillary advertising or promotion. These devices vary from time to time as a manifestation of continuous striving for the greatest possible advertising efficiency—the most sales per advertising dollar invested."

"While the novelty of some promotions in recent years may have attracted dominant attention, the fact is that they represent only a minor share of the total advertising expenditure."

All criminal cases except minor offences are tried by judge and jury of 12 in the Republic of Ireland.

Mentally Retarded Children Major Problem, Parley Told

CALGARY (CP)—Mental retardation is the most important chronic disability among children in Canada, a University of B.C. professor of pediatrics said Wednesday.

Dr. Henry Dunn, in a panel discussion at a conference sponsored by the Canadian Association for Retarded Children, described retardation as "arrested or slow development of the mind."

Dr. Margaret Thompson of Edmonton, geneticist at the University of Alberta, said there is evidence of hereditary traces in the families of mentally deficient children. The bio-chemical defects of some retardates were connected with genetics. However, many causes stemmed from poor pre-natal care.

Dr. Wallace Grant, assistant professor of pediatrics at the University of Alberta, felt "the emphasis on heredity is being replaced by an emphasis on the environmental factors."

Restricted or distorted experience could produce retardation and it was known that "withdrawn" children developed rapidly when placed in happy and affectionate surroundings.

An Edmonton neurologist, Dr. George Monckton, suggested that brain damage accounted for 20 per cent of mental retardates and urged that "every aspect of medical science be called in for any research program."

The association is embarking on a national medical research program designed to help prevent retardation.

Mrs. J. O. Arrowsmith of Toronto, CARC research committee chairman, announced Wednesday the association is proposing to appoint a scientific advisory board of eminent specialists to direct a "vigorous program" in all the sciences.

The idea behind such a program is two-fold—to discover causes of retardation and to develop ways of preventing it in future.

The three-day CARC-sponsored conference, with some 200 persons in attendance, ends Friday. It is the first of its kind held in Canada.

NO KNOWN CURE

Mrs. Arrowsmith said three per cent of Canada's population, about 480,000 persons, suffers from some form of mental retardation. There is no known cure. But preventive medicine may find answers to protect babies still to be born.

VETERAN CITY CHURCHMAN

He'll Celebrate 90th Birthday Between Irons

DR. W. G. WILSON—mechanic at 90.

By PETE LOUDON

A much-loved Victoria churchman, Dr. William George Wilson, will observe his 90th birthday Friday—if he can work it in between golfing and fixing the iron.

Dr. Wilson, who often must have admonished Sunday school pupils (who are now listed among Victoria's social and business leaders), that the devil finds work for idle hands, refuses to sit around and grow old.

Although he retired as minister of First United, 20 years ago, he has three times stepped back to the pulpit.

And he's run a continual first aid station for household desks, clocks, upholstered chairs, and everything else in the house which could possibly come apart.

"He has my iron all apart today," said Mrs. Wilson with just a hint of impatience in her voice. She manages the impression the doctor can't wait for something to break. "He has a gift. He always used to say a good mechanic was spoiled when he went into the church."

That was 55 years ago last May. Mrs. Wilson recalled highlights of the doctor's career—born the son of a justice of the peace in Ontario's Simcoe County, schooled near Bradford, then began work as a factory worker. He was 30 when he decided to go to college, and entered University of Toronto.

A brilliant scholar, he graduated in 1900 after winning nine scholarships. In 1902 he had his master of arts degree and in 1903 was second in the theology class at Knox College. Ordained in the same year he was called to the Presbyterian Church at Smith's Falls, Ont.

His next church was at Guelph. In 1908, he visited Halifax long enough to marry the daughter of the lieutenant-governor.

In 1911, he took his bride to Moose Jaw.

His Greatest Test—$1,000 A Month

It was during First World War at Moose Jaw the young minister must have met his greatest test. He embarked on a project for a new church—St. Andrew's, which stands today as one of the finest in Canada.

With the country at war, it was necessary for a judge in the congregation to go to London to raise a building fund. Even then, the best interest rate was 8 per cent.

The battlefields of Europe claimed the lives of 52 of Dr. Wilson's young men—the men who were pledged to pay off the church mortgage.

The tiny congregation was faced with the almost impossible task of raising $1,000 every month—just to meet the interest charges! It meant, as Mrs. Wilson recalls, "There was not a cent for anyone, including the minister."

Doctor Wilson recalls the ed against the flu, made soup, "... by the 100s of gallons," Mrs. Wilson said.

Then the men harnessed their teams and set out again, delivering food to families where often both parents were stricken.

At the same time, Dr. Wilson had little time for rest. Backwoods farmers have little time waiting for him," said Mrs. Wilson.

Dr. Wilson achieved his doctor of divinity degree in 1922, one year after his arrival in Victoria. He served First United here for 17 years until retiring in 1938.

For formalities, but none of them could stand to bury their dead without their man of God to utter the last service.

"Sometimes he went out in the morning to a funeral and until after dark, yet they'd all be waiting for him," said Mrs. Wilson.

During that period he recalls many of today's prominent citizens in his youth classes. "There were the three little Wallaces, Bob, Lawrie and John, Logan Mayhew, Neil Perry and Robert Peirce," to name a few.

These names are accompanied by titles in today's news columns—all denoting service leadership in government and business.

It was during Second World War that Dr. Wilson returned from retirement to spend three and a half years replacing younger men in churches at Saskatoon, Calgary and Edmonton.

Dr. Wilson's former church, First United, still claims him as its own however. October 15, the church will celebrate with him, his 90th birthday, the anniversary of 55 years as an ordained minister, and the day he prizes above all—the golden anniversary of his wedding to Mrs. Wilson.

There will be open house to all friends at Dr. and Mrs. Wilson's home at 1000 Pentrelew Place.

'GREAT TREKKERS TO ATTEND'

UBC Will Celebrate Golden Anniversary

By MARTIN TAYLOR VANCOUVER (CP) — The University of British Columbia, often considered a freshman among Canada's major universities, next week takes four days out to boast that it is half a century old.

Prime Minister Diefenbaker, Opposition Leader Pearson and Premier Bennett of B.C. are among 13 distinguished guests who will become honorary alumnae during the big academic birthday party, Sept. 23 to 26.

Born when most of Canada's famous colleges already were ivy covered, UBC now is the country's second largest English-speaking university and this year expects record enrolment of 10,000 students.

NEW ARTS BUILDING

High spots of the celebrations include two congregations for awarding honorary degrees, the opening of a $2,000,000 arts building to accommodate 3,000 students, and four-day symposium in which distinguished scholars will discuss the value of higher education.

The first congregation, Sept. 24, is for conferring of degrees on seven leading scholars of Canada, Britain and the United States.

At the second, Sept. 25, the same honorary doctorate of laws will be conferred on the prime minister, Opposition leader and B.C. premier, and on CCF Leader Coldwell, B.C. Lieutenant-Governor Frank Ross and Chairman Brooke Claxton of the Canada Council.

The scholars to be honored are: President W. C. Costin of St. John's College, Oxford; President Emeritus Harold W. Dodds of Princeton University; Vice-Chancellor Sir Hector Hetherington of Glasgow University; Principal D. W. Logan of London University; Msgr. Irene Lussier of the University of Montreal; Executive Secretary T. H. Matthews of the National Conference of Canadian Universities and former president R. G. Sproul of the University of California.

The new arts building, named the Buchanan Building in honor of the late dean Daniel Buchanan of UBC, will be declared open by Premier Bennett Sept. 25. Dean Buchanan died in 1950.

Although the university was created by the passing of the provincial University Act in 1908, it did not hold its first official session until 1915 when it was housed in a group of huts in the geographical centre of the city.

Several graduates of the first class are expected to be present for the jubilee celebrations.

Expected to attend in force are the now revered "great trekkers" of 1922, who took part in a mass student march from the shanty campus to the new site of the university on Point Grey, a picturesque peninsula jutting into the Strait of Georgia at the city's western extremity.

The 1,000-acre campus, which already has 200 buildings, now is entering a new $15,000,000 construction phase.

Beefsteak Price Soars In London

LONDON (Reuters) — The price of beefsteak in London soared to an all-time high of up to 13 shillings ($1.82) a pound—and many housewives switched to lamb and pork for their dinner tables.

HOOP TWIRLER FRACTURES HIP

Art Classes Scheduled By Gallery

The Department of Extension Services, Art Gallery of Greater Victoria, is preparing morning, afternoon and evening art classes for full-time students who intend to become professional artists.

Courses also will be available for housewives, businessmen and others interested in fine art and handicrafts.

Classes will begin Oct. 6 and persons wishing to enrol can contact the Department of Extension Services, Victoria Art Gallery, 1040 Moss Street (Phone 4-3123).

Outside Hunters To Be Kept Off Indian Reserve

DUNCAN — Indian council meeting this week decided to ban all hunting by whites on Indian reserves in the district.

In recent years permits were issued at a fee to white hunters, but Indians have claimed many abuses by white hunters, such as killing of sheep and guinea fowl.

The ban is considered as a safety measure as well as preserving game for the Indians.

'Salesmen Fleece Widows —Labor Urges Protection

A Better Business Bureau in Victoria to combat "shady business deals" and protect "widows fleeced by fly-by-night operators" was urged at a meeting of Victoria Labor Council Wednesday.

One delegate said some unscrupulous "businessmen" were making easy money in the city going from door-to-door selling household appliances that were "double the proper price."

Another council member mentioned operators "with no telephone or regular line of business who move from area to area in pickup trucks, seeking out widows to sell their stuff to."

"All they need is a city directory," he added. "That gives them all the information about widows they need, including whether they own their own homes."

Council secretary A. W. Toone, noting that "the executive thought of this some time ago," said the establishment of a Better Business Bureau "cannot be done overnight."

"This is an undertaking of considerable size," he said. "It is a matter of time and work and money. It will need the co-operation of every group in the community."

The council executive committee will study methods of starting such a bureau, or, as one delegate termed it, "Consumers' Protective Association."

HELP FOR COLLEGE

Enlargement of Victoria College is the subject of one of eight resolutions the council will submit to the B.C. Federation of Labor annual convention in Vancouver Oct. 21 to 24. It asks the provincial government to "carry forward" discussions immediately, planned with a view of the eventual requirements of a university with facilities comparable to those of the University of B.C."

Another resolution asks the B.C. government to improve working conditions of mental hospital workers to offset the lack of trained personnel in the province.

FREE EDUCATION

A delegate from the B.C. Government Employees' Association: "Those workers are dedicated. They have to be, or they wouldn't work under those conditions at those wages."

Other council resolutions to the convention will request free education at all school levels, better wages and working conditions for firefighters at military establishments, a 40-hour work week in B.C., and the placing of employees of provincial government boards and commissions under B.C. labor laws.

Council delegates who recently criticized the inclusion of the YMCA and YWCA in the Community Chest were told by YMCA president Art Stott at the meeting that the club was "running in the red this year" and that there was "complete justification" for calling on the public for funds.

"We feel we could vastly increase our revenue if we made it a rich man's club," he added, "but if we did we would not only sacrifice our principles but would eliminate our community services."

Mr. Stott pointed out that while YMCA earned income jumped from $38,700 to $62,600 between 1950 and 1957, or 62 per cent, the money received from the Chest increased from $22,070 to $23,775, or only 7.7 per cent, in the same period.

Mr. Stott said the club provided boys with camps and other facilities at no cost in some cases, although they were encouraged "to pay their own way if they can, because of the character factor." He said the fee for boys aged from 9 to 17 was $5 in 1911, only $8 to $10 now.

The council agreed to send $10 to the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union, agreeing with the B.C. Federation of Labor that the striking dockers were "supporting a very important principle" (contributory pension plan).

Names Released In Fatal Car Crash at Keremeos

KEREMEOS (CP) — RCMP today released the names of two men killed in a car accident near Keremeos Wednesday afternoon.

The driver and owner of the car was Robert Smith, about 60, and his front seat passenger was Edward Powell, between 60 and 70, both of Vancouver.

In critical condition in Penitentiary Hospital is Powell's wife, Mrs. Rebecca Powell.

Police said the 1951 model car left Highway 3 and crashed into a tree as it rounded a fairly sharp curve. There was no indication of excessive speed and no skid marks. The front end was heavily damaged.

Results of an autopsy performed on the driver were not available.

ACROSS B.C.

Junk Man Brutally Attacked

(From CP Dispatches) VANCOUVER — Hung Jew Eng, an aged Chinese junk collector who has become a familiar sight in Vancouver's east end streets and back alleys, was brutally beaten and robbed Wednesday night.

He was reported in only fair condition in hospital today. Police said the wizened 72-year-old crawled more than 100 yards after the beating in an alley and then collapsed.

Eng has been pushing an old wheelbarrow around the east end for years in search of old rags and junk. His habit of bending double over his barrow and disregard for traffic lights has caused many motorists some anxious moments.

Police said they believe Eng was thoroughly searched by his attackers, but they found $70 in a pair of dirty socks he had in his possession. It was not immediately known how much was stolen.

POULTRY DISEASE

ALDERGROVE — An outbreak of Newcastle disease among Fraser Valley poultry flocks is reported by poultrymen. The disease is especially widespread in the Langley-Aldergrove area.

MISSING BOY FOUND

PRINCE GEORGE — A 2½-year-old boy, missing 23 hours from his home near here, was found asleep near a pipeline right-of-way Wednesday about two miles from his home.

Tony Beauchamp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Beauchamp, was spotted from the air by Capt. George Knight of the U.S. Air Force.

The boy was picked up by RCMP and taken to Prince George Hospital. Doctors said he appeared well.

RIVER FLOW BOOSTED

KITIMAT — The flow of water down the Skeena River from the Aluminum Company of Canada's Skins Lake spillway, 120 miles east of here, is being increased in an attempt to save the valuable Adams River sockeye run.

MOLESTER HUNTED

VANCOUVER — Police made a house-to-house canvass of Vancouver's West Point Grey area Wednesday seeking leads to a man who has molested at least 14 women in eight months.

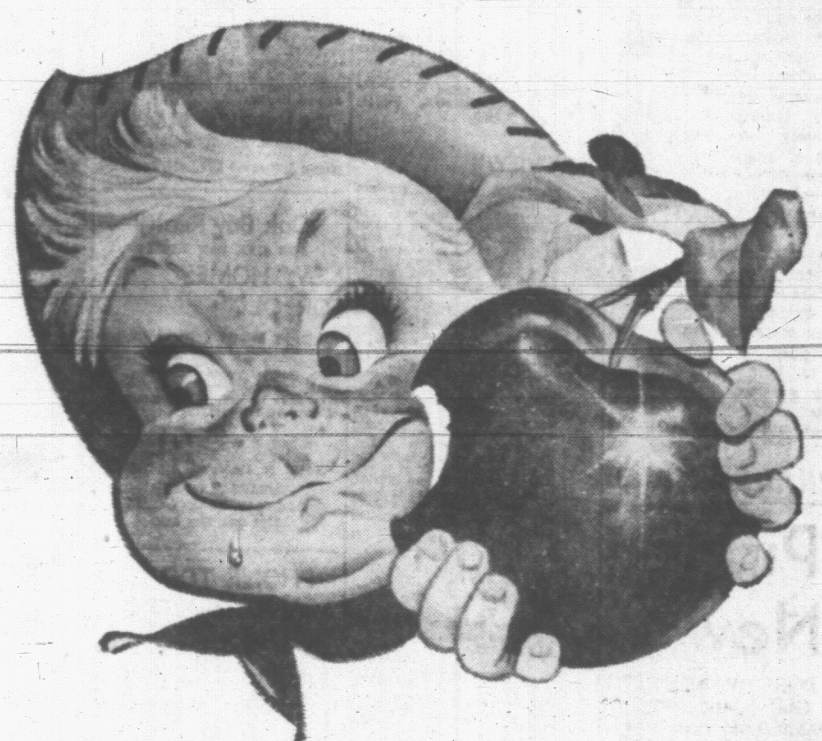

At the same time Mayor Fred Hume put up a personal donation of $500 as a reward leading to arrest and conviction of the molester and said he would ask the police commission to offer a reward. A radio station also offered $500 in reward money.

Police making the canvass were armed with an artists' conception of the soft-voiced, blond molester who breaks into ground-floor suites occupied by women and usually ties them up and fondles them before departing.

A University of B.C. psychiatrist has warned the molester is psychopathic and could become dangerous.

INGENIOUS 'SQUARES'

They've Updated Dancing on Green

By OLIVE L. JOHNSTON
COBBLE HILL.—Dancing on the green may have been satisfactory in England 400 years ago for Shepherd Jack and Dairymaid Jill, but their direct descendants, the square dancers of today, have gone them three or four better.

Take the Squareaders of Cobble Hill. All summer long they danced on a smooth plywood floor laid on grass on a lot beside the highway opposite Bayview School.

Floodlights took the place of swinging lanterns, and a record player substituted for a fiddler, but the spirit was the same.

The square dancers will move indoors Sept. 30 at Mill Bay Community Hall, when organizers Orville and Edith Nikirk, teacher and caller respectively, will start a new group of beginners.

Seniors, meanwhile, are close to celebrating their first anniversary.

The Nikirks, of Shawnigan Lake, started the club last October with 60 members of 16 years and up, some of whom have dropped out. Anyone who misses more than three lessons is dropped, since it is felt unfair to hold back the entire group for the sake of those whose interest is not keen enough to keep them coming.

TRIUMPHANT TRIAL RUN

'Pirates' Board New Gulf Ferry

PORT WASHINGTON, Pender Island (CP) — The new Gulf Island ferry, Mv. Island Princess, made a triumphant trial run from Steveston on the B.C. mainland to Galiano, Mayne, Pender, Saturna and Salt Spring Islands Wednesday.

She started her regular schedule today, and will complete the round trip each Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday for the present. She replaces the Harbor Navigation Company's Lady Rose, which made her last run Tuesday.

Inauguration of the new service is a personal victory for Coast Ferries manager O. H. (Sparky) New, who was aboard with his wife, Recreation Minister Earle C. Westwood, and

Firemen Build Their Own Swim Pool

DUNCAN.—Members of South End volunteer fire department of North Cowichan municipality are building a 45-foot swimming pool at the rear of the fire hall on Duncan Street.

The fenced pool will cost $3,000, and is being paid for by the fireman's practice pay. It will be used by the firemen and their families and friends.

PLEASURE AFLOAT

New Ramp at Shoal Harbor

Another of the boat ramps to join the growing list of outdoor launching sites in this area is a concrete runway 25 feet wide at Clark Bros. Boat Works, Shoal Harbor.

Stan and Henry Clark, who set up their boat building business at Brentwood 20 years ago after arriving have been busy making improvements ever since.

They will charge for the use of the ramp, but the single fee will cover launching, parking for car and trailer, and loading.

MORE RESPECT

"We feel that if a small charge is made, people will have a little more respect for the property," Stan Clark said in describing the new layout.

What they have is a 38-acre tract on a peninsula in Shoal Harbor, about 100 yards past

FINE SEASON PREDICTED ON SMALL DEER

NANAIMO (CP) — One of the best small deer seasons in years has been forecast by regional game biologist Don Robinson.

On the basis of last week-end's check of 1,650 hunters in the Nanaimo, Courtenay, Port Alberni, Campbell River and Victoria areas, a take of 150 deer was reported with the "hot spot" near Campbell River.

Courtenay was also better than last year, with a report from Northwest Bay showing about twice as many deer taken as in 1957.

These areas produced a success rate of 12 to 15 per cent — "quite good for this time of year," Robinson said. Around Victoria, the rate was about 5 per cent.

However, sizes were down "mainly as a result of the long dry summer and resulting poorer growth of feed." Weights ranged from 48 pounds to 165 pounds, the majority of deer being under 100 pounds.

He Wrestled Police While Clutching Baby

COURTENAY (CP) — A young theft suspect here Tuesday night wrestled police with one arm while holding his baby in the other.

The struggle was related in police court here Wednesday when Kenneth Babcock, 25, was charged with obstructing an officer and with theft of a car wheel.

A companion, Harry Joseph Muckle, 27, faced the same charges.

Babcock and Muckle, both from Royston, were spotted removing a wheel from a delivery van after Babcock's car developed a flat nearby.

While one constable attempted to force Muckle into the patrol car, Babcock grappled with another mounted on one arm while holding his nine-month-old infant in the other.

Pleading guilty to both charges, the pair each were fined $75 for obstruction and $100 for theft.

Fire Destroys Empty Home At Galiano

GALIANO ISLAND (CP) — An early morning fire destroyed a two-storey frame house at Whaler Bay on Galiano Island. The owner, George Head, about 65, was not at home at the time.

Earlier, fears had been held for the owner's safety.

The fire was spotted by a neighbour who was awakened at about 1 a.m. by the glare. Volunteer firemen, hampered by lack of water, were unable to check the flames, but prevented the fire from spreading to nearby bush.

PLEASURE AFLOAT

New Ramp at Shoal Harbor

Another of the boat ramps to join the growing list of outdoor launching sites in this area is a concrete runway 25 feet wide at Clark Bros. Boat Works, Shoal Harbor.

Stan and Henry Clark, who set up their boat building business at Brentwood 20 years ago after arriving have been busy making improvements ever since.

They will charge for the use of the ramp, but the single fee will cover launching, parking for car and trailer, and loading.

MORE RESPECT

"We feel that if a small charge is made, people will have a little more respect for the property," Stan Clark said in describing the new layout.

What they have is a 38-acre tract on a peninsula in Shoal Harbor, about 100 yards past

Hospital Shelved 'Just Little While'

Plans for a 1,500-bed mental hospital on Vancouver Island have not been shelved indefinitely, but just "for a little while," Provincial Secretary Wesley Black stated Wednesday.

He objected to news stories following his remarks last week that the government had shelved construction plans because of a lack of trained staff.

"You sure jumped on that one," he told newsmen. "Then the government is going ahead with the hospital?" he was asked.

Mr. Black edged into cabinet chamber for a meeting without replying.

Many organizations and civic leaders on Vancouver Island issued wrathful criticisms when the original statement was made.

Public Works Minister W. N. Chant said he felt only the lack of staff stands in the way of construction.

Board of directors of Community Welfare Council will protest any further delays—pointing out, if the pay rates of mental hospital workers was raised, a full staff would be assured.

BONNER:

B.C. Can Double Markets in U.K.

Britain's reduction of import restrictions will double British Columbia's potential market there, Attorney-General Robert Bonner forecast Wednesday.

Speaking in his dual capacity as trade and industry minister, Mr. Bonner said, "It is now up to manufacturers and salesmen of every B.C. exporting firm . . . to extend their sales in this market."

British trade board president Sir David Eccles told a Commonwealth economic conference in Montreal earlier, the U.K. will make "almost a clean sweep" of controls on dollar imports of industrial, agricultural and office machinery and will remove controls on imports of Canadian salmon and newsprint.

He hinted import quotas on Canadian foodstuffs may be lifted next year. Mr. Bonner said this may be good news for the Okanagan apple industry, now limited in exports to Britain.

Salmon imports from North America, 80 per cent of them coming from B.C., have been stopped at the $12,000,000 mark annually. President of the B.C. Fishermen's Association, James Sinclair, noting a British fondness for B.C. sockeye, now looks for much higher sales.

Canada faces competition in the U.K. salmon market. To get a bigger share of the market, Canadian prices may have to be reduced.

Reaction to the lifting of import bans was as optimistic in other quarters.

Educated guesses as to how Canadian exports might increase to Britain ranged anywhere up to $50,000,000 a year. Canada's shipments to Britain last year rose to a near-record $738,000,000.

Of Canada's total exports of $738,000,000 to Britain last year, about 10 per cent, or some $73-

MANY STORES DEFIANT

"They have the conviction that everyone should be treated the same and strictly speaking they are right."

Many drugstores and small retailers openly defied the law Wednesday afternoon. Canned goods, other than canned milk (which is permitted under the by-law), aspirins, combs and meat pies were sold openly in some stores.

Some drug stores, however, refused to sell anything but the permitted magazines, newspapers, soft drinks and candy. In a few cases drug stores gave aspirins to customers complaining of headaches and told them to pay next day.

RULES MISINTERPRETED

Weicker of the South Vancouver Island Druggists Association says they have misinterpreted the regulations.

"The regulations show that aspirins and other medicines may be sold in an emergency," he said, "and there is nothing to show that a headache is not an emergency."

Clerks in one pharmacy store sold everything from 222s and children's toys to birthday and greeting cards.

REGULAR CUSTOMERS

A number of small stores sold non-permissible goods to regular customers, but refused to sell them to people they did not know.

"After all we must take reasonable precautions," smiled a Chinese vendor.

The last of 600 questionnaires were sent out from city hall Wednesday to retailers affected by the shop-closing bylaw asking their preference between the present situation and a year-round six-day week.

Questionnaires have to be returned by Sept. 24.

MAIL CREW BLACKJACKED

LONDON (AP) — Three men wearing toy masks blackjacked the crew of a post office truck today and escaped through crowded London streets with mailbags containing $8,000 ($22,400).

The raid lasted less than 60 seconds.

RACE BARRIERS MUST FALL

'Mixed World Coming' West Indian Predicts

MONTREAL (CP)—A prominent West Indian sees the world of the future as a "multi-racial, plural community" moulded that way by the drive arising among under-privileged peoples.

Dr. C. G. D. LaCorbiniere, trade minister of the West Indies Federation, outlined his vision of a world of inter-mixed races to reporters at the Commonwealth trade talks.

The 46-year-old cabinet minister said he hoped increased emigration from the West Indian said:

OUTLINES THEORY

Dr. LaCorbiniere went on to outline his theory that ultimately existing immigration barriers will break down before the need of people from different corners of the world to travel to new places, settle down and tackle opportunities to improve their lot.

The British-educated West Indian said:

"One day all the people of the world will be all over the world. We will have a multi-racial, plural community. The world can only end that way."

"Come to Trinidad where colors and races are all mixed up and you will see what I mean. Sooner or later the whole world must be that way whether we like it or not."

"Living together, understanding and education will bring this about. We can't stop it. It would be like trying to stop the world from spinning around."

Tax Laws May Foil Segregation Plan

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Officers of a private corporation established to take over Little Rock's closed high schools planned an organization meeting today amid predictions from Negro leaders that the plan cannot stop integration.

Mrs. Gordon P. Oates, one organizer of the newly-incorporated Little Rock Private School Corporation, said the schools will be segregated if the firm operates them.

However, Mrs. L. C. Bates, president of the Arkansas branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said:

"When the schools open, be it under public or private guidance, Negro children will be there."

Segregationists have looked to private operation of city schools as one manoeuvre to avoid Supreme Court rulings that public school segregation is unconstitutional.

The justice department in Washington had no immediate comment. But its lawyers are known to feel that a transfer of public schools to private operation is unconstitutional.

$33,600 OFFER MADE TOWNSEND

CAPETOWN, South Africa (UPI) — Group Capt. Peter Townsend has been offered $33,600 a year to come to South Africa as public relations officer of a firm selling German kitchen stoves, it was announced today.

Townsend, unsuccessful suitor of Britain's Princess Margaret, is in Paris in connection with a film he is making about a world automobile race.

'JUST NORMAL BOYS'

Players' Brawl Denied by Casey

DETROIT (AP)—Casey Stengel says his New York Yankees are just normal, healthy, red-blooded, playful American boys. They do not fight among themselves, he says, and there have been no fights between players and coaches. The whole squad, says Stengel, is saving its strength for Milwaukee Braves and the world series.

The New York Post said Wednesday that coach Ralph Houk and relief ace Ryno Duren "engaged in a bloody battle" during the Yankees' victory party Sunday night.

Houk denied it, too, and Duren was in Wisconsin attending his grandfather's funeral. Other Yankee players said it was just horseplay and some writers covering the club said there was no exchange of punches.

The Post said the fight took place on a train carrying the club from Kansas City, where the Yankees clinched another pennant Sunday, to Detroit. "By agreement the sports writers travelling with the team kept it secret," said The Post. "Today it leaked out."

Everyone seems to agree on one point — that Duren apparently had been drinking and that there was at least a slight disorder involving the pitcher and the coach. Houk was in his seat, chewing on an unlighted cigar. Duren pushed it into Houk's face.

The Post said "the fight was not the first between Duren and Houk. At Denver, Houk was Duren's manager last year. At least once he had to tame Duren with his fists."

Houk denied all this. "We've never had any trouble," he said. Duren pitched five scoreless innings against Detroit Tuesday, and bore no noticeable signs of battle.

Captain 'Corny' Back on the Beach

NEWPORT, R.I. (UPI)—Cornelius Shields, the sea-wise yacht-racing veteran who skipped the Columbia to victory in the America's Cup trials, will be on the sidelines during the cup races.

Harry Sears, head of the syndicate which built Columbia, said he intended to keep Briggs Cunningham at the helm in the match races with the British challenger Sceptre which begin Saturday.

Shields, who suffers from a heart condition, was ordered to the sidelines by his physician just before the final race against the Vim last week.

Sears said afterwards that he "needed Corny" and would make every effort to get him back on the ship by race time. However, his efforts apparently were fruitless. He said Wednesday night that the crew would remain the same for the races against Sceptre.

Meanwhile, workmen at the Newport shipyard repaired

Spokane Simon-Pures Still Keep on Trying

SPOKANE (AP)—Proponents of senior amateur hockey here Wednesday night went right ahead with plans to field a team this year despite the fact that their future is pending on a decision by the state supreme court.

Clarence Tubbs, president of the amateurs, confirmed that the club has ordered uniforms, equipment and tickets and even picked a name for a team, the Jets.

The City of Spokane has filed an appeal calling for rejection of a superior court ruling that the city grant the amateurs playing time in Spokane Coliseum.

The city maintains that both the senior amateurs and the Spokane Flyers, a new entry

Pennant-Bound Braves Find Cards Still Tough

By UP International
Smilin' Stan Hack is only minding the store for the St. Louis Cardinals but he aims to show a profit just the same.

Announced as the interim manager when Fred Hutchinson was fired Wednesday, Hack made a successful debut in a 5-3 victory over Milwaukee Braves. Hack's objective is to make up a 2½-game deficit and beat out Cincinnati Redlegs for fourth place.

The loss cut the Braves' first-place margin over idle Pittsburgh to 5½ games but their magic clinching number is still only three. The Braves can cut it to two when they play the Cardinals again tonight and then could clinch on Friday night.

BANKS BELTS 4TH
Ernie Banks hit his 47th homer to lead Chicago Cubs to a seven-inning, 6-2 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies in the only other National League game. Detroit Tigers beat the New York Yankees, 5-2, and Boston Red Sox topped the Kansas City Athletics, 4-2, after a 6-3 defeat in the only American League activity.

Rookie Gene Green knocked in two runs with a homer and a triple as the Cardinals kayed 20-game winner Warren Spahn in six innings and handed the Milwaukee southpaw ace his 11th setback. Green's fourth-inning homer gave the Cardinals a 3-2 lead and they added another pair in the sixth on Green's triple and singles by Ken Boyer and Eddie Kasko.

CLEARs ROOF
Mickey Mantle hit his 41st homer, a tremendous blast that cleared the right field roof at Detroit and was estimated at 500 feet, but Jim Bunning held the Yankees to only six other singles for his 13th triumph. Reno Bertola knocked in three runs with two homers as the Tigers dealt 21-game winner Bob Turley his seventh loss and took the season series, 12-10.

Mantle is the first player to hit a ball over the right field roof at Briggs Stadium since Ted Williams did it in 1939.

Bill Renna, subbing for Williams, hit a two-run homer, and Don Buddin and Frank Malzone also homered for the Red Sox who broke an eight-game losing streak in the nightcap. Rookie Bill Monbouquette limited the Athletics to six hits. The Athletics won the opener on a grand slam homer by catcher Harry Chitt.

Alouette Acquisition
MONTREAL (CP)—Montreal Alouettes of the Big Four announced acquisition of Ken Jackson, a two-way tackle cut by Baltimore Colts of the National Football League.

Hartack Boots In 2,000th Winner
ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—Jockey Willie Hartack rode the 2,000th winner of his career Wednesday, scoring on Herald Wind in the fifth race at the Atlantic City track.

Hartack, leading U.S. rider in each of the last three years, missed on four mounts after pushing his total to 1,999 Tuesday.

RECORD FEE PAID OUT FOR SHEFFIELD FORWARD

LONDON (AP)—Manchester United today paid about £40,000 for Sheffield Wednesday forward Albert Quizzall—a record British soccer transfer fee.

The previous highest transfer fees in British soccer were the £35,000 paid for Albert Sewell in 1951 and Cliff Jones earlier this year. Sewell was transferred from Notts County to Sheffield Wednesday and Jones from Swansea to Tottenham Hotspur.

Hutchinson Out, But Not for Long

ST. LOUIS (AP)—St. Louis Cardinals fired manager Fred Hutchinson Wednesday but won't name his successor until the end of the season.

The replacement undoubtedly will be former Cardinal Solly Hemus, known to be the favorite of owner August A. Busch.

With Hutchinson went his three coaches, Stan Hack, Terry Moore and Al Hollinsworth. Hack agreed to manage the Redbirds until the end of the season. Then he's on his way out of the Cardinal organization, as is Moore. Hollinsworth might be offered another job in the system.

The only stumbling block in the way of Hemus being the fourth St. Louis manager in five years appeared to be terms the Philadelphia Phils might want for him. At second base for the Phils, he has been one of the few live wires on that team.

Eddie Stanky, now a coach with Cleveland Indians, will be with the Cardinals next year. He'll act as a "baseball brain," with a final say on trades, bonus players and rookies.

Favored for a pitching coach is Eddie Lopat. Next in line is Sal Maglie. The Cardinals would have to obtain a release of Lopat from New York Yankees, whose Richmond International League farm he manages.

Hutchinson won't be out of a

Inflation Trend Key to Investors

By HAL MALONE
Times Business Editor

"Should I hold on to my money and hope the purchasing power of the dollar won't decrease or should I invest in stocks and seek a possible gain?"

How many times has this question puzzled potential investors, been tossed to brokers and been discussed over pots of tea or other snake-bite remedies? No one can forecast the trend of inflation, a key to the matter. But a Boston, Mass., investment firm has made a revealing study of the value of the purchasing power of the dollar stocks for various time periods.

The study encompasses periods of one year to 30 years and covering almost every conceivable kind of economic condition.

As the length of the periods increase, the chance of loss in the purchasing power of the dollar becomes greater. But, conversely, the chance for gain in stocks becomes even greater.

For instance in the one-year periods, 87 of which were analyzed, the chances of gain and loss for both are about even. Studies show stocks about a 58 per cent chance of gain; there is a 54 per cent chance the investor will experience a loss if he holds dollars.

In comparison, studies of 58 periods of 30-year holdings showed there is a 91 per cent chance the investor will experience a loss if he holds dollars but a 100 per cent chance he will gain if he has stocks.

Not all stocks give a good account of themselves as a measure of protection against not being able to increase their dividends or have had little or no principal value increase as useless to the investor as the race horse which runs out of the stretch or the fighter who trains on pastry and snatches.

Selective buying and constant watching are necessary to compensate for the inevitable mistakes an investor makes when he elects to wet his feet in the stock market. Plus, of course, a prayer that the market does not act like a new bride's first cake.

Ronson Products of Canada Ltd. has won an out-of-court settlement against the Belgo Canadian Manufacturing Co., importers and distributors of Japanese lighters.

Ronson claimed an infringement of rights and unfair competitive practices arising from the importation of the lighters which Ronson alleged were slavish imitations of its lighters. Belgo is prohibited, under terms of settlement, from the future manufacture, importation or sale of lighters which are substantially identical to those complained of in the Ronson suit.

Plywood Manufacturers Association of B.C. has won one of North America's most coveted safety awards. The association, representing all Canadian firms producing plywoods, will be presented with the National Safety Council's Association Safety Award at the National Safety congress next month in Chicago.

W. M. "Scotty" Allison, senior safety director of the association, will receive the award, one of less than a dozen earned in 1957 by more than 600 associations across the nation. B.C. mills reduced the frequency of occupational accidents 40.98 per cent during the past five years and 19.26 per cent last year. Average reduction for all industries was 16 per cent in the last five years.

P. S. Watt, of Ross, Touche and Co., is the lone Victoria chartered accountant attending the 56th annual conference of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants at Montreal.

An 18-year-old Port Coultam boy has won a $2,000 Imperial Oil scholarship. Frederick McCourt was one of 11 young Canadians selected. Awards were made for scholastic standing, character and special aptitude. The B.C. winner plans a four-year arts course at UBC. With each scholarship an additional $500 is granted to the university the winner attends.

... HERE AND THERE ...

With NORMAN CRIBBENS

Proud man these days is Dick Colby of the film branch of the B.C. government's recreation department.

His 20-minute documentary "Tight Lines" has been described by the National Film Board of Canada as "the finest fishing film we have ever seen."

The board has ordered 25 prints of Dick's movie for world distribution—and it will also be circulated throughout Canada.

Those who complain there is no night life in Victoria may care to consult the section marked "Night Clubs" in the yellow pages of the new Victoria telephone directory.

Five night clubs are listed—The C.A.C. Garden Restaurant, Club Sirocco, Club Tango, Hop Shi Chop Suey and Progressive Artists.

Who says Victoria is dull?

Directors of Victoria Art Gallery met one evening last week to plan the opening of the new $75,000 fireproof wing, which took place Saturday morning.

One of them posed a problem. "The ceremonies will finish around 11.45 a.m.," he said, "but the luncheon isn't until 12.45 p.m. What will we do with the guests while they are waiting for lunch?"

The directors pondered the problem in silence. Then Tony Emery came up with a bright idea.

"If the worst comes to the worst," he said, "they could kill time looking at the pictures in the gallery."

A friend of mine tempted fate Wednesday night by parking his car in the space marked "Reserved for the Lieutenant-Governor" at the side door of the Empress while he skipped across the road to the pop shop.

He was back in three minutes for a quick get-away, but before he could start the engine a party of sailors strolling by shouted:

"Hello there, guy!"

When CCF leader M. J. Coldwell returned from a recent visit to his native England, he was interviewed by a Canadian immigration officer who had never heard of him.

"The officer asked me where I was born and how long I had lived in Canada," Mr. Coldwell said. "I told him I had lived here 49 years and had a Canadian passport. So it didn't matter where I was born."

DEPUTY MINISTER of education for New Brunswick, Dr. F. E. MacDermid, 59, today was scheduled to be installed as the new president of the Canadian Education Association in convention here at the Empress Hotel. Born in Chatham, N.B., he graduated from the University of New Brunswick and in 1954 obtained his doctor of education degree. He has been deputy minister since 1949.

Esquimalt Fleet to Join U.S. in Big 'Sub-Hunt'

One of the largest joint exercises ever undertaken by the United States and Canadian navies will take place off the West Coast of Vancouver Island Monday to Thursday next week.

Eleven ships of the RCN Pacific Command, an undisclosed number of U.S. naval and navy air force units, and aircraft from RCAF Squadron 407, Comox, will participate.

The exercises are part of the increasing program of anti-submarine warfare (ASW) now under way.

Location will be a wide area of open Pacific, to the West of Cape Flattery.

The Canadian ships will comprise the full Second Canadian Escort Squadron of six destroyer escorts, and all but one of the six frigates of the Fourth Canadian Escort Squadron.

Senior officer of the Second

Squadron is Capt. J. C. Pratt, who is also commanding officer of HMCS Crescent. Senior officer of the Fourth is Capt. H. A. Porter.

Other ships taking part, and their commanding officers, are: destroyer escorts Cayuga (Cmdr. M. H. E. Page), Athabaskan (Cmdr. D. S. Boyle), Skeena (Cmdr. W. M. Kidd), Fraser (Cmdr. Raymond Phillips), and Margaree (Cmdr. Jack Koning). Frigates Stettler (Lt.-Cmdr. M.

H Cooke), Antigonish (Lt.-Cmdr. R. W. J. Cocks), New Waterford (Lt.-Cmdr. W. S. T. Blandy), New Glasgow (Lt.-Cmdr. A. R. Pickels) and Jonquiere (Lt.-Cmdr. E. V. P. Sunderland).

The second squadron is now at sea, exercising in Canadian waters. Both squadrons will proceed to Seattle Saturday for general conferences and briefing on the forthcoming exercises.

The Esquimalt-based ships will return Sept. 26.

New Record Registration At College

Registration at Victoria College stands at a new high of 771 and will reach 850 by Monday, when classes start, according to Prof. R. T. Wallace, vice-principal.

"It will be about 150 higher than that of last year," he said. An indication of the size of the student body was the overflow crowd that attended the annual freshman assembly today in the auditorium.

ALL SPACE NEEDED

The big student body will strain all classrooms, laboratories, and other facilities "to the limit," Prof. Wallace said. New space is being prepared, he said, but it will not be fully in use before Christmas.

Of the registrations in hand Wednesday night, 423 were for students in arts and science, and 348 in education.

New staff have been added in the English, French, and physics department to make a total of 46.

Woman's Charred Body Found in Kitchen Chair

Esquimalt Home Hit By Early Evening Fire

A frightened collic and a half-full coffee cup were mute evidence of fire that claimed a life here Wednesday.

Mrs. Lucille Calder, about 53, was burned to death in her home at 448 Grafton, Esquimalt.

She was found slumped in a chair beside the kitchen table. On it stood the cup, sugar and cream, and two unopened letters addressed to her.

When firemen broke into the house they found the Calder's five-year-old collic "Missie" cowering in a corner. Soaked, terrified, but unhurt, she wouldn't leave and had to be driven out.

"I ran up the steps and flames struck me in the face," said James Dunn, 1404 Beatty, one of the first to sight the fire which started sometime between 5:30 and 6 p.m.

SLUMPED IN CHAIR

Next to brave the flames were Esquimalt constable Peter Dougherty and the dead woman's son-in-law Dennis Kempton, 701 Connaught, who entered the kitchen and dragged Mrs. Calder outside.

"I followed Pete in," said Mr. Kempton, "and we found her sitting on a chair slumped over the kitchen table."

Esquimalt police chief Gilbert Stancombe said he was satisfied the woman was dead when found.

The fire was first spotted by next-door neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. David Walker, 444 Grafton, who phoned police and fire departments before joining a crowd of spectators outside the burning home.

HUSBAND AT WORK

Mrs. Calder lived at the modern bungalow with her husband Herbert, "Buck" Calder, owner of a construction business, and they had one daughter, Carol married to Dennis Kempton.

Mr. Calder was at work when the fire broke out. Many Victorians will remember "Buck" Calder for his 100-foot dives from a tower into the Gorge 35 years ago when the old tea gardens were in operation.

Mrs. Calder was pronounced dead-on-arrival at St. Joseph's Hospital and the body was moved to McCall Bros. Funeral Home.

The fire, thought to have possibly started in a large easy chair, was confined largely to the living room.

Varnished woodwork on the walls and ceiling were charred to a depth of half an inch.

TAPS FULL ON

When firemen gained entry both taps in the kitchen sink were "running full blast" and burns were seen on cupboards under the sink.

It was thought that the woman, her clothes aflame and burning from head to foot, attempted to soak herself in water.

Regimental History Book On Sale Soon

A complete history of The Canadian Scottish Regiment (Princess Mary's) from 1920 to 1955, written by R. H. Roy, will go on sale here in book form Sept. 27.

A handsomely printed and bound book, it makes reference to the regiment's "ancestry" to the old 16th Battalion of the First World War—but is in most complete detail for the later period.

It is entitled "Ready For The Fray," and the jacket is illustrated by Cyril Conherton, local artist. First printing will be of 2,000 volumes, to be sold at $6.50 each.

There is, however, a deluxe issue to sell for $25. Families wishing to honor a member who served with the regiment may order such a volume with the soldier's name engraved upon it in gold.

Forward is written by Gen. H. D. G. Crerar.

The author, "Reg" Roy, served with the Cape Breton Highlanders, and at present is history instructor at the Canadian Services College, Royal Roads. Prior to his appointment he was in the provincial archives.

Hit-Run Victim Collapsed Before Crash

Got Up Again, Say Police

An elderly Chinese victim of a hit-run driver in Central Saanich Wednesday collapsed on his face minutes before he was involved in the fatal collision, Central Saanich police said today.

Chief Constable Fred Brownlee said Chin Yuk Chun, 70, of 1722½ Government, had been picked up near Butler Bros. supply yard on Keating Cross Road and put on a truck running board about 100-200 yards from where he was found after the collision.

It had been the man's habit to take long walks along Saanich Peninsula highways and byways and he had often been taken home by police.

Police are "positive" a black or dark-colored English car had nothing to do with the fatality, but request the driver to come forward with information.

The car sought is one of four which passed near where Chin was found on the roadside shortly after 8 p.m.

He was pronounced dead on arrival at Rest Haven Hospital, Sidney.

Chief Brownlee said J. W. Nelson of Brentwood had seen Chin collapse and fall on his face on the hard surface at about 7:55 p.m.

Mr. Nelson stopped his car and helped Chin to a Butler Bros. truck, where he left the man to recover from his fall while he went to "etch police."

He said that Chin told him he was all right.

While Const. F. W. Wenden was leaving his house to attend to Mr. Nelson's call, he received another call saying a pedestrian had been struck.

The chief said Chin evidently had got up and continued his walk east on Keating for about 100-200 yards before he was involved in the collision.

Investigation would be assisted if the point at which the pedestrian was last seen alive before the accident could be fixed by driver of the dark English car, the chief said.

An inquest is scheduled for Sept. 25 at 10 a.m. at Sands funeral home, but identification of the body will be Friday.

Higher Court Trial

John Proby, 42, of 444 Stannard, was committed for trial by judge and jury when he appeared in city police court today for preliminary hearing in the theft of $520 in June.

Proby is charged with committing theft by conversion in connection with a home improvement loan.

In the Smoke-Filled Bedrooms

Tories drifting back from the Vancouver convention say that this was much more than a provincial leadership contest.

They see it as a preview of the struggle to succeed John Diefenbaker, when his career ends. This could mean the prime ministership.

How come? Hang on tightly, my friends, because—like all political stories—this one gets a bit involved in places.

It's no secret, of course, that Davie Fulton brought a high-powered assistant from Ontario, George McLean, to organize and assist the campaign for Dr. Kidd. This man worked hard and was a power in the "smoke-filled bedrooms" before the vote was taken.

Fulton made no bones about his support of Kidd—and what is more, his active opposition to Deane Finlayson. His influence was brought to bear on many a border-line delegate.

Why?

Because, if you think back a little, Diefenbaker is the man who stood between Fulton and the prime ministership—and Finlayson is a Diefenbaker man.

Davie looks like the front-running contender to succeed John D. But, when that time comes, he will need some solid provincial backing—and most emphatically, the backing of his own province.

He will not get it from Deane Finlayson. He would have had it from Kidd.

That is why the "old pols" were describing the Vancouver meeting as "a little federal election."

And that is why a letter went out, just a few days ago, to George Hees in Ottawa saying:

"While you were basking in the sunshine of Ottawa, we were out here fighting your fight."

How does Hees get into the act?

Well, that's another story. You figure it out.

An education and information program will be presented at a meeting of the Lions Club of Victoria Friday noon at the Empress Hotel.

Police had no comment to make today on the shooting of a Saanich woman in her home Monday evening.

Mrs. Emmanuel Parratt, about 35, of 1843 Feltham, is in "satisfactory" condition at Jubilee Hospital with a .32-calibre bullet wound in the abdomen.

She is under police guard. Saanich police said Mrs. Parratt, a housewife and mother, had been alone in the house and was discovered in the kitchen by her husband returning home.

The woman had been under a doctor's care.

"GREAT LOSS" Victoria lawyers generally spoke highly of Mr. Botterell as lawyer, citizen and a leader of good causes.

"His death is a great loss both to the legal profession and the Liberal Party," said Victoria MLA George Gregory. "I am really shattered to hear of his passing."

Born in Winnipeg, Mr. Botterell served with the RCAF in the United Kingdom and Ceylon during the Second World War. He was a member of the first post-war class to graduate at the University of British Columbia.

After graduation he was articled to the legal firm of Bourne, DesBrisay and Bourne in Vancouver and then became a partner in the Victoria firm of Crease & Co.

Lawyer's Death Delays Hearing Of Murder Suspect

Sudden death of defence counsel Hugh Botterell brought indefinite delay to a preliminary hearing for murder suspect Mrs. Alice Louella Kerr, 54, in Victoria RCMP court today.

The hearing was remanded to Friday at 10 a.m. to enable Mrs. Kerr, charged in the shooting of her husband Albert, 56, on Aug. 10, to obtain new counsel.

It was expected a date would then be set, possibly next week, for the preliminary hearing to get under way.

Previous delay in the case was caused by a crown-requested remand when Mrs. Kerr appeared Aug. 25.

Mrs. Kerr was charged after her husband was found shot in their Hope Bay, Pender Island, home, early Aug. 11.

Delegates Named To CCF Meeting

ASK THE TIMES

Q. I visited the museum at Signal Hill the other day. Were there naval officers living there 40 years ago? I seem to remember there were.

L.W.

A. Yes, and even longer ago than that. The red brick building which now houses the museum, and similar buildings nearby, served as married quarters for naval officers when the Royal Navy first began to build up a base at Esquimalt, about the turn of the century.

REPERCUSSIONS FROM CONCERT GIFTS

My daughter gave a concert recently. We issued invitations and there was a large audience. I knew, of course, that my daughter would receive some gifts, and when I was asked if I wanted them brought up at the finish of the program, I allowed this to be done. Since then, several of our friends sent gifts and some apologized for being late. We are sick at heart about the whole thing, never realizing that by taking gifts to the stage made these friends feel obligated. Nothing was farther from my mind. Please tell me, did I do wrong?

Louise Davis Answers:

I think that what would have been wiser if you had "assumed" that your daughter wouldn't get gifts. Perhaps you could have said something like this, "If friends are so kind as to send flowers, it would be very nice to have them brought to the stage at the end of the program." The word "flowers" would then eliminate other kinds of gifts. If, then, you had been informed that they were not flowers, you could have made arrangements to have the packages unobtrusively put aside so that it wouldn't have been too obvious to those who didn't bring anything. I can understand why you didn't dream of the consequences. It seems to me that those wishing to send your daughter something other than flowers should have sent them to your home a day or so before the performance so as not to embarrass others on the scene.

Darlene Nute Married In St. Mark's Church

Baskets of autumn flowers decorated St. Mark's Anglican Church for the recent marriage of Darlene Alma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. W. Nute, of Victoria, and Philip Richard Godfrey, HMCS New Glasgow, son of Captain F. H. Godfrey and the late Mrs. Godfrey, of Halifax, N.S.

Canon Robert Willis officiated at the ceremony, at which the bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown of white nylon over net was fashioned with dainty lace yoke and full ballerina-length skirt. With it she wore a shoulder-length veil and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations with stephanotis.

Attending the bride were Miss Marilyn Nute, who chose an attractive gown of blue-embossed nylon over taffeta with blue feather headress, and Miss Carole Nute, in a similar gown of pale yellow with matching feather headress. Both carried bouquets of yellow and mauve chrysanthemums.

The bride's mother wore a velvet-trimmed dress in brown tones with matching hat and accessories. Mrs. G. E. Gray, assisting at the reception, wore a navy blue ensemble, with white accessories and white carnations in corsage.

Cadet Officer William A. Emery was best man and the bride's uncle, William Sluggett, ushered with Kenneth Hancock. John Fisher, the bride's godfather, proposed the toast at a reception in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Jellard-Jones, where Cmdr. and Mrs. G. E. Gray received guests with the wedding party and the bride's parents.

As the couple left later on a wedding trip to the mainland, the bride wore a green and black tweed suit with black velvet collar, a pink feather hat, black accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey plan to make their home in Victoria.

Neat Storage Means A Good, Clean Start

We're back to the sound of the old school bell, and teenagers everywhere are prepared for campus and fall with brand new school clothes.

It's time to store away for another year the bright cottons and delicate pastels of summer. And the teen-ager who wants them to look new and fresh when she next wears them will store them away neatly, carefully, and only after they have been thoroughly cleaned.

Next summer may seem a long way off, but you'll be mighty pleased when it rolls 'round and you can just take your clothes out and put them on, without having to get them into shape first. It's attention to small details that makes your clothes look smart as much as the money you spend on them.

Before you put away your light dresses, wash them, paying particular attention to the places most likely to get soiled. Use a small brush and soap or detergent suds on the hem, collar, waistband and sleeve edges before you immerse the entire garment. And if your blouses, skirts or dresses are drip-dry, finger press them before you put them away in tightly-sealed garment bags.

Don't put your summer shoes away without cleaning them. A light touch of a sudsy sponge will remove any mud or grime. Use shoe trees, too, so that the shoes will hold their shape during their long winter's rest.

Brush off your summer hats and place them in boxes on the closet shelf. Next time you want them you won't have to plow around, handling every item till you find the right one. Your summer gloves should be washed, and your handbags clean, before they are stored in plastic folders for next year's use.

Caring for your clothing in this fashion will give you a feeling of well-being. Neatness is the first rule of good grooming, and no one who isn't aware of cleanliness, small rips that need mending, or clothing that's hanging haphazardly on closet hangers can possibly look chic or smart when she goes out.

Garments that have been carefully mended, cleaned and stored will last a lot longer and look as good as new when they are returned to circulation.

The weeks and months pass quickly for active teen-agers. And before you know it, the warm weather will be back again. One bright, sunny day, you'll decide you're ready to wear that pretty pink dress and all its accessories.

CONFIDENTIALLY YOURS

—by Byrne Hope Sanders

MONTREAL, Sept. 18th — Secrets of success are often, I find, so simple. I'm thinking now of one secret for helping to find energy for a zestful day's work — a good breakfast. My mother taught us that secret — and served us RED RIVER CEREAL — the way I serve it to my family today. This delicious blending of cracked wheat, rye and flax, is really an ideal start for the day.

— whether it's for youngsters or hard workers who need the energy value it brings... or for older folk and sedentary workers who find Red River guards regularly. Ready in a few minutes, and good for everyone! Let's move into autumn with good piping-hot Red River breakfasts!

I'M A REAL FAN for anything I can use in a lot of different ways... especially when it makes my cooking taste better! That's why I depend so much on BAKER'S CHOCOLATE CHIPS — those unusually delicious, deeply-rich bits of chocolate goodness. Baker's Chocolate Chips do magic things to cookies, cakes, desserts, and frostings — and do it more flavorfully than any other chocolate chips I know. Their unfadingly crunchy, fresh quality is perfectly preserved by the exclusive foil package, which keeps the chips as fresh as the day they were made.

"WHAT'S FOR DESSERT?"... is the cry as your hungry brood comes roaring home from school. As a special treat, serve them one of the 7 scrumptious ROYAL INSTANT PUDDINGS. And remember, Royal is the instant pudding you can make with skim milk. Try it, and save on calories and money. For your family's extra treat, make Chocolate Marshmallow Pudding. 1 pkg. Royal Instant Chocolate Pudding... 4 large marshmallows, quartered, or 24 miniatures... 2 cups of cold milk. Mix Royal Instant Pudding with milk until smooth, about 1 min. Allow to start setting. When slightly thickened, stir in marshmallows. Turn into serving dishes. Allow to set. Makes 6 servings.

SWEET-TINTED AS AUTUMN LEAVES! Lovely to look at — and lovely to taste — these Apricot Coconut Balls made quick-as-quick with BORDEN'S EAGLE BRAND Sweetened Condensed Milk. They'll keep fresh for ages! Serve them as candy — or as enticing little cakes! Apricot Coconut Balls. 2½ cups dried apricots, ground — 2 cups shredded coconut — 2½ cup (1½ of a 15 oz. can) Eagle Brand Sweetened Condensed Milk — 1 egg. Combine apricots and coconut. Add Eagle Brand Sweetened Condensed Milk and blend well. Shape into small balls and roll in icing sugar. Chill. There's a family treat — and a party delight, too!

FOR AN EXCITING NEW TASTE PLEASURE... introduce your family to HOVIS Bread — with the natural goodness of golden wheat. The little ones — and the big ones, too — will love it toasted, or plain, believe me! I can speak with conviction, for we've served Hovis in our home for many years. Hovis has FIVE times the amount of wheat germ contained in ordinary whole wheat bread — so it's an excellent source of Vitamin B<sub>6</sub>. complex, including the very important Vitamin B<sub>1</sub>. Hovis has an exclusive nut-like, sweet, delicate flavour... keeps moist and flavourful, too. Get Hovis at better bake shops and grocery stores, and enjoy a new taste-delight!

I'VE NEVER SEEN A HUSBAND AS PROUD as Mary's was the other night! He beamed with delight when we all asked for second helpings of Mary's wonderful layer cake. Then she told us her cake success "secret"... BLUE BONNET MARGARINE. You know Blue Bonnet. For you, too, will know that Blue Bonnet makes cakes as light as a dream... beautiful, tender cakes that melt in your mouth... superb for pastries, cookies, muffins, as a spread, Blue Bonnet is now and always has been a delicious, nutritious, all-vegetable margarine... that's why everything tastes better when you use Blue Bonnet!

I USED TO BE A "NO-ACCOUNT" in my finances, I mean. Never knew where I stood from one pay-day to the next. Then Madge put me wise. "Why not be a 'Two-Account'?", she asked. Next pay-day, open a BANK OF MONTREAL Personal Chequing Account. Use it for paying your household bills. At the same time, open a Savings Account strictly for saving! It will help you keep track of every dollar you spend — and save money as well. Now I'm a confirmed "Two-Account". Why don't you try it? Your B of M Manager will be glad to show you how to save money with a Personal Chequing Account — strictly for spending — and a Savings Account — strictly for saving.

LOVE THAT DOG! OF COURSE YOU DO!... and be sure to express your affection by feeding him a daily diet of DR. BALLARD'S CHAMPION DOG FOOD... the superb veterinary diet that contains all the nutrients your dog needs in exactly the right proportions. All dogs relish the three Dr. Ballard flavors — Liver, Chicken and Regular. Insure your pet's sound digestion, bright eyes and glossy coat by seeing to it that he always gets his daily feeding of Dr. Ballard's Champion Dog Food... then you can't fail to delight in and share his abounding good spirits!

Happiness as a Goal Is Elusive—It's a By-Product

It seems that those who make happiness their goal find it elusive, while it comes to others without a search. To them it's a by-product of constructive living and thought.

Haven't you known people who've taken blow after blow from fate, who are far from well off financially, but who seem filled with the joy of living? They seem to have some inner quality which makes life seem brighter when we are in their presence.

Haven't you known others who have plenty of the world's goods, wonderful children, good health and a happy home life, who are fretful and restless and frustrated. It might be interesting to investigate what habits create deep satisfaction and a sparkling spirit. I'd like to guess!

At some time along the way it seems to me that the truly happy person realized that happiness must come from within. In the last analysis, we must find emotional security within ourselves. We must be at peace with ourselves.

Then, too, happiness may be the result of a long series of wise choices. Do you ever stop to think that we are making choices hour by hour, day by day, month by month, and year by year? We are constantly making choices which will have a tremendous effect on our lives. Too often we short-change ourselves by being influenced by a short-range view.

I think that perhaps the most important characteristic of all is the ability to be keenly aware and to live vibrantly in the present, rather than mulling over the past or dreaming of the future.

If we live in the future, we push exciting, pulsating reality back and damage present happiness with the anesthesia of future expectations and hopes.

It is so important to be content with what we have; otherwise we are impervious to everyday happenings which make up the sum total of happiness. If we always are striving for things we do not have, we become insensitive to the simple companionship of family and friends, to tenderness, to laughter, to the aroma of coffee on the stove, to the changing moods of the seasons, to the wonderful potentialities of the people we know.

All about us lie the ingredients from which inspiration, satisfaction and humor can be extracted.

Last but not least, health plays a tremendous part in our happiness. Our physical, emotional and mental selves are intimately correlated.

INGENIOUS 'SQUARES'

They've Updated Dancing on Green

By OLIVE L. JOHNSTON

COBBLE HILL—Dancing on the green may have been satisfactory in England 400 years ago for Shepherd Jack and Dairymaid Jill, but their direct descendants, the square dancers of today, have gone them three or four better.

Take the Squareaders of Cobble Hill. All summer long they danced on a smooth plywood floor laid on grass on a lot beside the highway opposite Bayview School.

Floodlights took the place of swinging lanterns, and a record player substituted for a fiddler, but the spirit was the same.

The square dancers will move indoors Sept. 30 at Mill Bay Community Hall, when organizers Orville and Edith Nikirk, teacher and caller respectively, will start a new group of beginners.

Seniors, meanwhile, are close to celebrating their first anniversary.

The Nikirks, of Shawnigan Lake, started the club last October with 60 members of 16 years and up, some of whom have dropped out. Anyone who misses more than three lessons is dropped, since it is felt unfair to hold back the entire group for the sake of those whose interest is not keen enough to keep them coming.

TRIUMPHANT TRIAL RUN

'Pirates' Board New Gulf Ferry

PORT WASHINGTON, Pender Island (CP) — The new Gulf Island ferry, Mv. Island Princess, made a triumphant trial run from Steveston on the B.C. mainland to Galiano, Mayne, Pender, Saturna and Salt Spring Islands Wednesday.

She started her regular schedule today, and will complete the round trip each Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday for the present. She replaces the Harbor Navigation Company's Lady Rose, which made her last run Tuesday.

Inauguration of the new service is a personal victory for Coast Ferries manager O. H. (Sparky) New, who was aboard with his wife, Recreation Minister Earle C. Westwood, and other provincial and local officials.

The new ferry, 130 feet long, can carry 300 passengers and 20 cars. Its lounge, dining room and staterooms are fitted for the comfort of all patrons.

TRUSS UP

At Galiano fake "pirates" swarmed aboard waving cutlasses and toting a cask labelled "rum." They trussed up Mr. and Mrs. New, threatened to hang "Sparky" and the ship's captain, and only relented after mercy had been asked on bent knees.

Gay colored streamers were flung aboard in the reception at Mayne, where a plaque was presented to the captain in commemoration of the first call. There were also welcomes at Port Washington and Hope Bay, on Pender Island, and at Saturna and Ganges.

Mr. New spoke briefly at each stop, predicting a new prosperity for the islands, while Mr. Westwood envisioned a succession of yacht basins and marinas "to match the best constructed anywhere in the world."

The fenced pool will cost $3,000, and is being paid for by the fireman's practice pay. It will be used by the firemen and their families and friends.

PLEASURE AFLOAT

New Ramp at Shoal Harbor

Another of the boat ramps to join the growing list of outdoor launching sites in this area is a concrete runway 25 feet wide at Clark Bros. Boat Works, Shoal Harbor.

Stan and Henry Clark, who set up their boat building business at Brentwood 20 years ago after arriving have been busy making improvements ever since.

They will charge for the use of the ramp, but the single fee will cover launching, parking for car and trailer, and loading.

MORE RESPECT

"We feel that if a small charge is made, people will have a little more respect for the property," Stan Clark said in describing the new layout.

What they have is a 38-acre tract on a peninsula in Shoal Harbor, about 100 yards past Macdonald Park. To date they have a boat repair shed, marine ways, the boat ramp and parking space for 50 cars, and floats.

By mid-fall they will have gas pumps and oil service, floats to accommodate 100 boats, a deep boat basin and an investment of $100,000.

Water is of minimum depth, Mr. Clark said, and must be dredged to provide moorings. However, he said, there is no lack of space, and eventually he and his brother will have space for 1,000 boats.

CRAZE JUST STARTING

"The boating craze is just beginning on Vancouver Island," he said. "We have plenty of space and are ready to grow with it."

The boat ramp is over double width, and can handle boats both coming and going at the same time. There is room for other ramps, and

FINE SEASON PREDICTED ON SMALL DEER

NANAIMO (CP) — One of the best small deer seasons in years has been forecast by regional game biologist Don Robinson.

On the basis of last week-end's check of 1,650 hunters in the Nanaimo, Courtenay, Port Alberni, Campbell River and Victoria areas, a take of 150 deer was reported with the "hot spot" near Campbell River.

Courtenay was also better than last year, with a report from Northwest Bay showing about twice as many deer taken as in 1957.

These areas produced a success rate of 12 to 15 per cent — "quite good for this time of year," Robinson said. Around Victoria, the rate was about 5 per cent.

However, sizes were down "mainly as a result of the long dry summer and resulting poorer growth of feed." Weights ranged from 48 pounds to 165 pounds, the majority of deer being under 100 pounds.

He Wrestled Police While Clutching Baby

COURTENAY (CP) — A young theft suspect here Tuesday night wrestled police with one arm while holding his baby in the other.

The struggle was related in police court here Wednesday when Kenneth Babcock, 25, was charged with obstructing an officer and with theft of a car wheel.

A companion, Harry Joseph Muckle, 27, faced the same charges.

Babcock and Muckle, both from Royston, were spotted removing a wheel from a delivery van after Babcock's car developed a flat nearby.

While one constable attempted to force Muckle into the patrol car, Babcock grappled with another mountie with one arm while holding his nine-month-old infant in the other.

Pleading guilty to both charges, the pair each were fined $75 for obstruction and $100 for theft.

Fire Destroys Empty Home At Galiano

GALIANO ISLAND (CP) — An early morning fire destroyed a two-storey frame house at Whaler Bay on Galiano Island.

The owner, George Head, about 65, was not at home at the time.

Earlier, fears had been held for the owner's safety.

The fire was spotted by a neighbour who was awakened at about 1 a.m. by the glare. Volunteer firemen, hampered by lack of water, were unable to check the flames, but prevented the fire from spreading to nearby bush.

Defiance
May Alter
Shop Laws

No prosecutions have been laid against Victoria storekeepers and druggists as a result of the police crackdown on retailers violating the Wednesday store-closing regulations, police chief John Blackstock said today.

But many retailers are taking steps to have the regulations changed, and Mayor Percy Scurrell said the present impasse could result in a year-round six-day shopping week.

A spokesman for the city solicitor's department said there is nothing in the new Municipal Act to prevent the city council from passing such a bylaw.

The matter will be raised at the next meeting of the city council on Monday at 2 p.m.

The council is known to be sharply divided on Wednesday closing and it is considered unlikely any drastic change will be effected at this meeting.

Under the present bylaw, passed last May, city retailers may stay open six days a week from June 1 to Sept. 15, but must close at 1 p.m. Wednesday at all other times of the year.

LEGAL ADVICE

South Vancouver Island Retail Druggists' Association has set up a special committee to discuss the legal position with lawyers.

The committee will report to a full meeting of association to be held in private at the Royal Jubilee Hospital tonight.

"We hope the situation will be clarified then," said Ralph McCall, chairman of legal committee.

WARNINGS ISSUED

Although many retailers are known to have broken the law Wednesday afternoon, Police Chief John Blackstock said he had decided to lay no charges this time.

"General observance of the law was good," he said. "Our men called on some 12 city storekeepers found open between 1 and 2.30 p.m. and issued warnings. The majority complied with these warnings."

"The same procedure will be followed next Wednesday unless the city council changes the bylaw before then. And we shall enforce store closing under the Lord's Day Observance Act next Sunday."

"We are not anxious to prosecute anyone. But if we are to enforce some of the regulations we must enforce them all. The next move is up to the city council."

Mayor Scurrell said: "If the six-day shopping week people insist on it, the law must be enforced. They told us plainly they were going to insist on the law being strictly enforced, and they notified us in a public meeting. Otherwise the situation would be as it has been for 30 years past."

Mayor Scurrell said he did

Boy Murder Suspect
Sent to Adult Court

By DAVID COWLISHAW

A 16-year-old boy charged with murder following the slaying of two men in Colwood Saturday was transferred from juvenile to open police court today.

Matthew John Till will appear in RCMP court at Colwood 10 a.m. Wednesday, when a date will be fixed for preliminary hearing of a charge that he murdered Charles Mudge.

Mr. Mudge, 38, and his 70-year-old father-in-law, John Brand, were found shot to death at the Mudge home at 3460 Metchosin. Mr. Mudge's wife Phyllis received a beating at the time of the shooting.

The order transferring Till to open adult court was made by Magistrate A. I. Thomas at the boy's bed in Veterans' Hospital, where the youth is recovering from injuries received at the time of his capture Sunday.

'No Visitors' In Chilly Room

The mother and aunt remained behind after the court adjourned. In black coat hiding a light blue dress, and white hat, the bespectacled Mrs. Till rested her chin on her hands propped up on the bed as she spoke softly with her son.

Now and again she assumed an attitude of prayer, occasionally dabbing with a handkerchief at her eyes. The boy smiled at her continuously, while RCMP Constable Grant Horne of Victoria sub-division headquarters leaned over the foot of the bed.

The cell-like room, white-walled and containing only the bed and a small table, was chilly.

Formosa Crisis
Aired at UN

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (CP)—Andrei Gromyko today demanded the withdrawal of American forces from Formosa and renewed a Russian pledge to help Communist China "at any moment to beat off the aggressor by joint efforts."

"Let nobody be misled by the true meaning of present actions of the United States government in the Far East and of the consequences they will inevitably entail if they are not curbed in time," the Soviet foreign minister told the United Nations General Assembly.

"The sponsors of military provocations against China have evidently forgotten that China is a mighty power whose people is united around its government and has no small experience in giving a rebuff to foreign invaders."

"One should not also overlook the fact that China is not alone, that the Chinese People's Republic has true allies who are ready to help it at any moment to beat off the aggressor by joint efforts, and the Soviet Union is among these allies."

Gromyko said it had become more and more evident that "there cannot be a stable peace in the Far East until American armed forces are withdrawn fully and for all time from the Chinese island of Taiwan, Formosa, and from the Taiwan Strait, until the United States stops interfering in the affairs of China."

Situation Grave
Says U.S. Leader

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (CP)—State Secretary Dulles of the United States declared today that the Chinese Communist campaign against Formosa "poses a grave threat, with ominous implications."

Dulles spoke a few hours before the assembly's steering committee was to consider whether the UN should debate the question of seating Red China. The committee was expected to reject an Indian proposal for such a debate.

He expressed hope the talks now in progress in Warsaw between U.S. and Chinese ambassadors would end the current crisis, but reserved the right to bring the problem to the UN if the talks appeared headed for failure.

Dulles charged that the Chinese Communist regime now is attempting to extend its authority to the offshore islands "by use of naked force."

"The issue is thus a simple one: Armed conquest."

He said the current actions of the Peiping government demonstrates again that China is not "peace-loving"—a phrase used in the UN charter in defining requirements for membership in the world organization.

Five Red Jets
Shot Out of Air

TAIPEI, Formosa (UPI) — Nationalist sabre jets shot down five Soviet-built Mig-17 jets and probably damaged another in two separate air battles near the offshore Quemoy islands, the Nationalist air force announced tonight.

An air force communique said the American-made Sabre jets also sank three Communist PT boats and damaged a fourth while flying cover for a convoy that again carried supplies to Big Quemoy.

The air force said its planes suffered no losses. All were flown by Nationalist Chinese airmen.

But U.S. air force planes and surface vessels were on convoy escort duty in the Formosa Strait, with orders to shoot back if attacked.

"The U.S. planes might just follow the Migs to mainland China bases and bomb those bases," Maj. R. G. Martin of the VANCOUVER (CP)—Alf Rutten, centre-half for Hungaria of the Pacific Coast summer soccer league, has been given a life suspension for an attack on the referee in a game at Nanaimo Sept. 7. Dave Fryatt, chairman of the B.C. Soccer Commission, announced the suspension today.

Russia Calls for German Peace Treaty

BERLIN (AP)—The Soviet Union today called upon the Western big three to join immediately in forming a commission to draft a peace treaty for Germany.

Cut-Throat Trade Pattern Of Reds Conference Topic

MONTREAL (CP)—Commonwealth countries today indicated they may appeal to Soviet bloc countries to join world trade pacts as a means of ending cut-throat competition that may wreck established markets for various products.

Australia's Trade Minister John McEwen led off on a two-hour discussion on the East-West trade issue at the Commonwealth trade conference and spokesmen said there appeared to be wide support for Australia's suggestions to negotiate with Russia and her satellites.

Trade Minister Churchill, speaking for Canada, was reported to have told the conference that Russia seems always to be selling products on the world market at a little less than the established price.

He said this seems to be an apparent, deliberate attempt by the Communists to disrupt established trade patterns.

Conference spokesmen said

that virtually every Commonwealth member country welcomed East-West trade but objected to this Soviet below-price trade practice.

Indian and Pakistani delegates told how Communist China was offering textiles at just one cent a yard below their prices. There were similar situations in tin, flax, aluminum, zinc and manganese.

Spokesmen said the conference felt Red China was using trade as a political weapon. For example, it showed off industrial machines at international fairs but when a person came to order some, there was no follow up. China didn't seem to have enough of the machines for sale.

While the conference emphasized the Soviet situation at the morning meeting, there were indications that smaller member countries may also later call for a showdown with Britain and other major powers in the plea for development of protective trade pacts.

Warsaw Peace Talks Adjourned to Sunday

WARSAW (Reuters)—American-Chinese ambassadorial talks on the Formosa strait crisis lasted almost two hours today and then adjourned until Sunday.

Jacob Beam, United States ambassador to Poland, and Chinese ambassador Wang Pingnan, left the meeting as wordlessly as they arrived.

The main purpose of the current meeting is to ease tension in the Formosa Strait offshore islands area.

TOKYO (AP)—Red China's official mouthpiece today rejected the idea of a cease-fire in Formosa Strait while American and Red Chinese ambassadors confer in Warsaw on the crisis.

The rejection came in an article in the Peiping People's Daily.

B.C. Can Double Markets in U.K.

Britain's reduction of import restrictions will double British Columbia's potential market there, Attorney-General Robert Bonner forecast Wednesday.

Speaking in his dual capacity as trade and industry minister, Mr. Bonner said, "It is now up to manufacturers and salesmen of every B.C. exporting firm... to extend their sales in this market."

British trade board president Sir David Eccles told a Commonwealth economic conference in Montreal earlier, the U.K. will make "almost a clean sweep" of controls on dollar imports of industrial, agricultural and office machinery and will remove controls on imports of Canadian salmon and newsprint.

He hinted import quotas on Canadian foodstuffs may be lifted next year. Mr. Bonner said this may be good news for the Okanagan apple industry, now limited in exports to Britain.

Salmon imports from North America, 80 per cent of them coming from B.C., have been stopped at the $12,000,000 mark annually. President of the B.C. Fishermen's Association, James Sinclair, noting a British fondness for B.C. sockeye, now looks for much higher sales.

Canada faces competition from Japan in the UK salmon market. To get a bigger share of the market, Canadian prices may have to be reduced.

Reaction to the lifting of import bans was as optimistic in other quarters.

Educated guesses as to how Canadian exports might increase to Britain ranged anywhere up to $50,000,000 a year. Canada's shipments to Britain last year rose to a near-record $738,000,000.

Of Canada's total exports of $738,000,000 to Britain last year, about 10 per cent, or some $73,

He indicated this would be right up to and perhaps over the China mainland, at the pilot's discretion.

But Martin emphasized today U.S. jets would not strike out from the Formosa Strait into the Red-held mainland unless "provoked."

The latest aerial and sea battles took place after two Nationalist LST's, each capable of carrying 1,300 tons of cargo, landed their supplies on the beach at Bib Quemo under a rain of about 1,100 Red shells.

Today's announcement brought to 17 the number of MIGs the Nationalist air force claims its planes have shot down since the Reds started moving their supersonic jets into new coastal airfields opposite Formosa in July.

Chiang Kai-shek's airmen have admitted losing only two Thunderjets and one Sabrejet in these battles.

Today's air and sea onslaught was the biggest launched against the Quemoy supply convoys since the U.S. Seventh Fleet started escorting the Nationalist vessels Sept. 7.

not blame the supporters of six-day shopping.

"They have the conviction that everyone should be treated the same and strictly speaking they are right."

Many drugstores and small retailers openly defied the law Wednesday afternoon. Canned goods, other than canned milk (which is permitted under the by-law), aspirins, combs and meat pies were sold openly in some stores.

Some drug stores, however, refused to sell anything but the permitted magazines, newspapers, soft drinks and candy.

In a few cases drug stores gave aspirins to customers complaining of headaches and told them to pay next day.

RULES MISINTERPRETED

On this point, however, Mr. Weicker of the South Vancouver Island Druggists Association says they have misinterpreted the regulations.

"The regulations show that aspirins and other medicines may be sold in an emergency," he said, "and there is nothing to show that a headache is not an emergency."

Clerks in one pharmacy store sold everything from 222s and children's toys to birthday and greeting cards.

REGULAR CUSTOMERS

A number of small stores sold non-permissible goods to regular customers, but refused to sell them to people they did not know.

"After all we must take reasonable precautions," smiled a Chinese vendor.

The last of 600 questionnaires were sent out from city hall Wednesday to retailers affected by the shop-closing bylaw asking their preference between the present situation and a year-round six-day week.

Questionnaires have to be returned by Sept. 24.

Tax Laws May Foil Segregation Plan

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Officers of a private corporation established to take over Little Rock's closed high schools planned an organization meeting today amid predictions from Negro leaders that the plan cannot stop integration.

Mrs. Gordon P. Oates, one organizer of the newly-incorporated ated Little Rock Private School Corporation, said the schools will be segregated if the firm operates them.

However, Mrs. L. C. Bates, president of the Arkansas branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said:

"When the schools open, be it under public or private guidance, Negro children will be there."

Segregationists have looked to private operation of city schools as one manoeuvre to avoid Supreme Court rulings that public school segregation is unconstitutional.

The justice department in Washington had no immediate comment. But its lawyers are known to feel that a transfer of public schools to private operation can be challenged successfully if continued use of public tax money is involved and if it can be shown that the conversion is only a device to avoid Supreme Court rulings.

All principals indicated they plan no action until after Little Rock's referendum 10 days from now.

Voters on that day will say whether they favor integration or segregation.
